Water For Clover Not For Humans More Important?

Rancher's Leaching Of Well May Drop Muir Beach Supply

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Should the purity of water be predicated on the needs of human beings or for the raising of clover for cows?

George W. Wheelwright III of Green Gulch Ranch has advised residents of nearby Muir Beach that he is leaching his well of salt to attempt to improve water for Muir Beach residents as well as to water clover on his ranch.

His well and that of the Muir Beach Community Service District are near one another at Shoreline Highway near Muir Beach Tavern.

"How do we know this will work?" asked one Muir Beach resident today, who asked that his name be withheld.

"Do you think its right to jeopardize the water supply? We feel he's taking out the water pressure at our expense . . . he loses clover . . . we lose our water system."

The resident said that a similar instance happened in La Paz, Baja California, and five years later the salt water came in and there was no fresh water.

An agreement is being worked out between the community services district and Wheelwright, Charles S. Graham, district secretary, said today. It may be discussed at the board's next meeting Jan. 6.

Graham added that Wheelwright who has been pumping about a week, pumps from the 95-foot level and the district from the 50-foot level. "We can get some water from him while he is pumping," he said.

Muir Beach water is "heavy in iron" making clothes washed in it yellow, Graham said. He carries his water, as do many other residents, from Mill Valley for drinking.

Wheelwright pointed out, in a letter to Muir Beach residents, that "legally we find that anyone can dig a well and pump water on his own land, and if he intrudes on the water of other people their only recourse is to go deeper with their well or pump or both."

He said it is not his aim to take drinking water from Muir Beach but he believes there is more than enough water for both if properly tapped. He suggests pumping out the underground system during winter allowing nature to supply fresh water to percolate down and leach out salt.

"It must have been obvious to most of you last summer that we were hurting for water for irrigation purposes. It may come as a surprise to some of you that clover is more demanding than human beings, and that if water has too much salt content clover will sicken and die."

A geological survey has been made by Wheelwright, he said, of the ranch's whole water shed, including fields and the edge of Redwood Creek which borders the ranch. "We find it certain that there is an underground supply of water which we be-

Petitioners Claim Support For Alto City

Support for incorporation of the proposed city of Alto was "overwhelming" in a sampling of signatures collected over the week end, Stanley Gallagher, acting chairman of the incorporation committee, said today.

More than 250 persons signed petitions circulated by 10 people endorsing the proposed incorporation. Sickness of two petition circulators plus the fact people were doing Christmas shopping cut down the number of signers, Gallagher said.

Announcement of the results will be made to the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission when the commission meets at 8 p.m. today in Civic Center to hear the City of Mill Valley's application to annex 137 acres of high school and tidelands area.

Included in Mill Valley's proposal is the Alto commercial strip along Highway 101, this being also a part of the city of Alto proposed incorporation.

Signatures will continue to be collected to be turned in by Jan. 18 to the county clerk. Enough must be collected, said Gallagher, to represent 25 per cent of the assessed land value in the area within the proposal.

"We're very happy that the reaction is overwhelming in favor of supporting incorporation at this time," said Gallagher, "until a study can be fully made."

Petitions were circulated in Alto, Bay Vista Heights, Bel Aire, Eagle Rock, Harbor Point, Pelican Hill, the Cove, Tiburon Hill Estates and Strawberry.

Gang Hijacks Canada Gold

MONTREAL (UPI) — A hooded gang, its five or six members functioning "like clockwork," early today robbed a freight terminal at Dorval International Airport of gold bullion worth up to $250,000.

The armed men took the two boxes of gold bricks, along with a shipment of watches, from the Air Canada terminal in a lightning-like raid that took only minutes and left hardly a mark at the holdup scene.

According to police, the gang handcuffed four employes and locked them in a shower room, and then made off with the gold and watches.

Viet Raiders Booby-Trap U.S. Officers

Red Successes, Plane Crash Take High Toll

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist commandos today wounded four American officers in a daring bombing raid into the center of a Vietnamese army division headquarters 10 miles from Saigon. The predawn strike against the American officers quarters at Thu Dau Mot was carried out under a diversionary Viet Cong mortar barrage.

A U.S. military spokesman also reported four more American casualties in other actions, including one killed and one missing in action. The casualties brought U.S. losses since last Tuesday to 12 killed, 2 missing and 21 wounded.

TOLL NOW 238

They also raised to 238 the total of Americans killed in action in the war against the communist guerrillas since Jan. 1, 1962. Another 91 Americans have died in non-combat incidents and other accidents for an overall total of 329.

Reliable western sources, meantime, charged that 200 government troops deserted en masse during the major battle last week at Chuong Tien, 110 miles southwest of Saigon. Two U.S. captains were killed and one was listed as missing in the fighting Friday. Neither Vietnamese government nor U.S. military officials would confirm the report.

BUDDHISTS STRIKE

South Vietnam's three most powerful Buddhist leaders ended a 48-hour hunger strike against the U.S.-supported government of Premier Tran Van Huong. The military governor of Saigon warned of severe punishment for anti-government demonstrators if trouble erupted but the strike caused scarcely a ripple of public interest.

Reports from central Vietnam said growing communist terrorism there had driven about 25,000 refugees into the port city of Qui Nhon, 280 miles northeast of Saigon. Roman Catholic refugees alone numbered more than 15,500 by Friday afternoon, according to the parish priest, Rev. Cao Duc Thuan.

Officials maintained a top-secret stamp on the mysterious troop transport plane crash that killed 2 Americans and 37 Vietnamese. Speculation that the plane, said to be carrying 30 Vietnamese commandos, may have been involved in a secret mission against communist North Vietnam. There were no survivors.

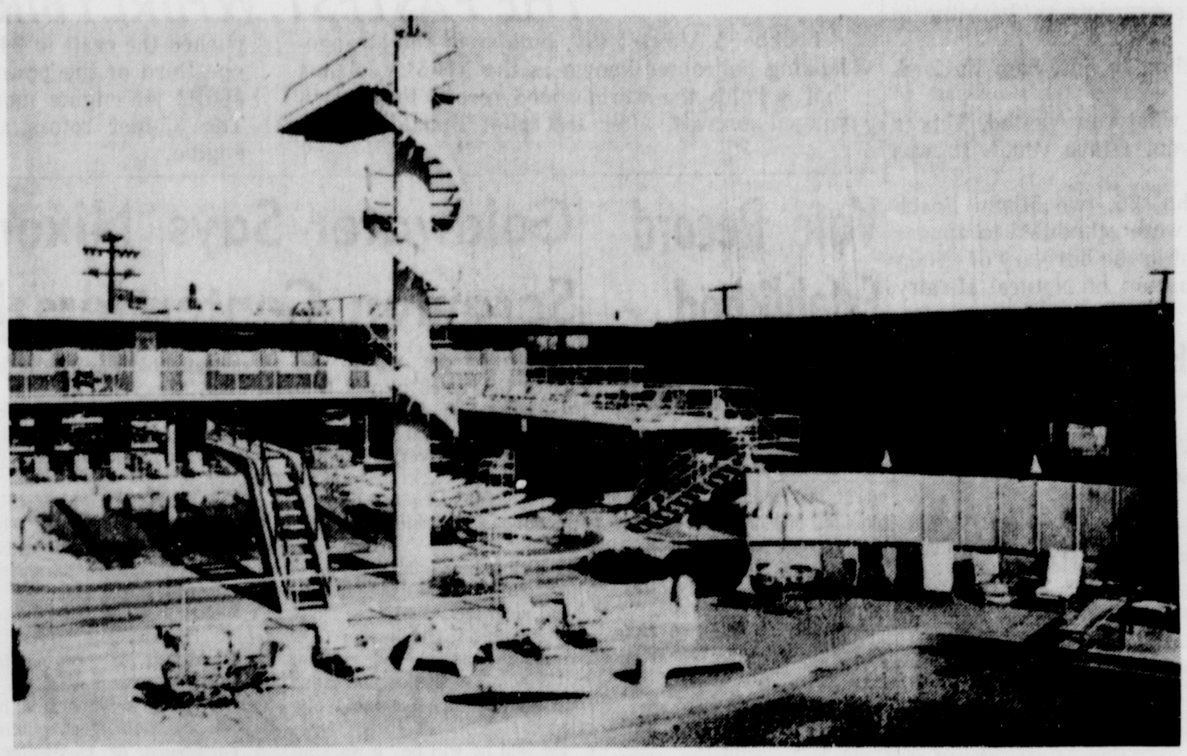

Thant Seeking Cyprus Extension

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —Secretary-general Thant recommended to the U.N. Security Council today that the U.N. peacekeeping force on Cyprus be extended for another three months.

He said there seems to be no reasonable alternative for the time being to maintaining the force on the eastern Mediterranean island.

A spokesman for Thant said the council probably will meet at the end of the week to take action on extending the mandate of the 6,279-man force which expires on Dec. 26.

Supreme Court 'Landmark' Validates Civil Rights Law

LOSES RACIAL BATTLE—The plush Heart of Atlanta Motel, in Atlanta, Ga., today lost its court battle against being forced to accept Negro guests under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The United States Supreme Court ruled that the act is constitutional and applies to the hotel and to other business. (AP Wirephoto)

Sit-In's Charges Quashed

WASHINGTON (UPI)— The Supreme Court today stamped sweeping and unanimous approval on the public accommodations section of the new civil rights law barring racial discrimination by motels, hotels and restaurants.

It followed up this landmark decision with a 5-4 ruling that the act quashes retroactively the prosecutions of the thousands of sit-in demonstrators arrested for trying to desegregate restaurants, lunch counters and other places of business covered by the law.

In two initial test cases, the court declared the public accommodations proviso of the civil rights act constitutional. It said Congress had a full right to pass such a law under the commerce clause of the constitution.

BROAD OPINIONS

The decisions dealt specifically with an Atlanta motel and a Birmingham, Ala., restaurant. But the language used in the opinions was so broad in scope that they indicated the same finding would be made in cases involving other public accommodations such as theaters, auditoriums and sports arenas.

Justice Tom C. Clark delivered the main opinion in all three decisions.

In the motel case, he declared: "The voluminous testimony presents overwhelming evidence that discrimination by hotels and motels impedes interstate travel."

NATIONAL PROBLEM

He said the decision of Congress to apply the law to restaurants—even those which have essentially local patronage—was "plainly appropriate in the resolution of what the Congress found to be a national commercial problem of the first magnitude. We wind it in no violation of any express limitations of the Constitution and we therefore declare it valid."

Other sections of the law passed by Congress earlier this year were not at issue. The court gave top priority to the two test cases in order to speed a constitutional decision on the contraversial public accommodations question.

SANTA'S READY TO HEAR FROM YOUNGSTERS

Youngsters will have a chance to put Santa Claus "on the spot" tonight and tomorrow night to discuss the latest things in toys for Christmas.

The Independent-Journal and members of all Marin County junior chambers of commerce have prepared a direct hook-up with the North Pole so tiny tots can talk direct to Santa between 7 and 9 p.m. to make their wishes known.

The number to call in the south and central Marin areas is GL 4-3020. In Novato, the Western California Telephone Co. has set up a special line at 892-9000 for calls.

Clouds May Bring Rain, Chase Frost

An overcast sky and slightly warmer temperatures today gave Marin County some promise of less ice and frost and a chance of some rain.

The mercury plunged to 25 degrees in Woodacre early Sunday morning and was down to 32 this morning. Frost and dank fog was reported in several areas of the county at dawn today.

The Weather Bureau said there is a 60 per cent chance of rain tonight and tomorrow. Rain had already started this morning in the northwestern corner of California.

Old Man Winter was also stirring up cold weather and storms throughout the rest of the nation today.

Five inches of snow was reported in Michigan and there was a 10-inch fall reported in Montana.

Escapee Top Suspect In $1,500 Burglary

A San Quentin Prison inmate walked away from the minimum security facility outside the prison walls between 9 and 10:20 p.m. last night.

A burglar took $1,500 in cash and checks from the office of North Bay Lumber Co., 5776 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, early today.

Corte Madera Police Inspector Harold N. Hockett said today the escapee and the burglar may be the same man.

The inmate, Donald Duane Dacey, 27, was missing from his bed in the prison's ranch dormitory at 10:20 p.m. last night.

He was last seen at 9 p.m., wearing blue trousers and blue denim shirt, James W. L. Park, associate warden, said today.

Dacey, convicted of assault with intent to commit robbery in Stanislaus County in March, 1958, was paroled from Duell Vocational Institute in Tracy in April, 1959, but was convicted of parole violation and assault with a deadly weapon in March, 1960. He was transferred from Soledad Prison to San Quentin in Nov., 1963.

He has brown hair and eyes, weighs 150 pounds and is five feet, eight inches tall. A statewide all-points bulletin was issued last night and it is believed he may be headed for his home in Richmond or his parents' home in Fairfield, Solano County, Parks said.

The burglary at the lumber company occurred between 1:15 and 2:31 a.m. today, Hockett reported. A rear window of the office was smashed with a piece of asphalt. Unlocked safes in the building were opened and papers strewn about the office, he said.

The money and checks were not in the safes but had been hidden in a locked top drawer of a filing cabinet. A three-eighths inch pry was used to spring open the cabinet.

Britain Acts To Oust Jagan

LONDON (UPI) — The British government today amended the British Guiana constitution in a swift move to oust Prime Minister Dr. Cheddi Jagan, defeated in general elections last week.

Jagan said after the election: "I refuse to resign. The British government must force me out."

Queen Elizabeth held a special privy council this morning at Buckingham Palace and signed an order-in-council amending the British Guiana constitution.

Israeli Cabinet Quits Over Dispute

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Prime Minister Levi Eshkol and his government resigned tonight in the culmination of a lengthy crisis pitting Eshkol against former premier David Ban-Gurion.

Eshkol submitted the government's resignation to President Zolman S. Shazar, who still has to accept it formally.

Furnishings Exemption Is Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Board of Equalization today called for a tax on certain leased equipment and the exemption of household furnishings from local property taxes.

The recommendations were included in a list of tax changes presented to the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Revenue and Taxation by John W. Lynch, vice chairman of the board.

Lynch told the senators that failure to make adjustment for the impact of the growing leasing business tends "to accentuate the competitive advantage of leasing and diminution of the tax base."

The largest revenue impact, Lynch said, would be felt by extending the use tax to cover the rental receipts of computers and other business machines.

He added, "Preliminary estimates indicate that a tax on the rental of computers and business machines would increase state revenue by 10.7 million dollars annually."

Lynch said the equalization heard unanimously favors the exemption of all personal effects

More Sales Tax Asked For Counties

SACRAMENTO (AP) — William R. MacDougall of the County Supervisors Association of California told a Senate fact finding committee today that local sales taxes should be increased by one-half per cent.

MacDougall said the additional revenue should all be earmarked for the counties in an effort "to reduce the intolerable burden on the property taxpayers."

The current local sales tax is one per cent.

Girl In Gem Theft Case Dead

MIAMI (UPI) — Jack (Murph the Surf) Murphy, apparently unruffled by the suicide of his beautiful blonde girlfriend and common-law wife, was scheduled to appear in New York's Supreme Court today with two co-defendants to answer charges in connection with the "great gem theft."

Bonnie

The body of Bonnie Lou Sutera, 22, was found Saturday night in the apartment she shared with Murphy.

On a nearby end table police found an open Bible, an empty bottle of barbiturates and a penviled note addressed to "darling Jack."

The medical examiner listed the death of the former airlines stewardess as "barbiturate intoxication."

The death note, according to Sgt. Sam Fulford, said:

"Darling Jack: This is what you wanted. This is the last thing I can give you. I love you." It was unsigned.

Murphy, 26, Alan Kuhn, 25, two Miami Beach boys, and Roger Clark, 29, were scheduled to appear in court to face an indictment in the burglary of $400,000 in jewels from the Museum of Natural History Oct. 29.

No Clues In Shotgun Death

Fitzmaurice

Lt. Col. Charles William Fitzmaurice, 48, of Kings Park was felled by a shotgun blast in his right side Saturday night when he answered a knock at the front door.

Police said Fitzmaurice was alone on the first floor of the house at the time. They said his wife rushed downstairs pust in time to hear her husband cry "Oh, my God, I've been shot," before he died.

Detectives said there was no apparent motive for the slaying. The only traces of the killer were footprints in a flowerbed near the front door.

Guevara Predicts More Fighting

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernesto Guevara, No. 2 man in Communist Cuba, says his island nation is "not sending arms to other Latin-American countries," but he admits it has helped train subservices there.

"We have helped some Latin-American compañieros comrades acquire some military knowledge," the Cuban minister of industry told newsmen at a Columbia Broadcasting System studio yesterday after appearing on television.

Guevara predicted "there will be fighting in every country in Latin America," saying "revolutionary conditions are ripe."

"In Venezuela, Colombia and Guatemala, there is already fighting taking place," he said.

About 150 jeering Cuban exiles were held back by barricades and policemen on foot and on horseback when Guevara showed up at the studio on West 57th Street for an interview on "Face the Nation."

Vote Record Established By Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A record 70,621,479 Americans voted in last month's presidential election, official totals tabulated by the Associated Press showed today.

The popular-vote totals which showed an increase of almost 1.8 million over the 1960 election were:

President Lyndon B. Johnson 43,126,218.

Sen. Barry Goldwater 27,174,989.

Although the total set a record, there was a percentage decline in voter participation compared with 1960—based on the number of Americans who were of voting age on Election Day.

RATE IS DOWN

In the 1960 race, 63.1 per cent of the persons the Census Bureau estimated were of voting age cast ballots for president.

This year, with the number of age-eligible voters estimated at 113.9 million by the bureau, the participation rate was down to 62 per cent.

In all, 35 states showed declines in participation over 1960. Where four years ago 29 states had 70 per cent or more of their voting age population at the polls, this year only 16 could surpass that figure.

But the Southern states, always on the bottom of vote participation charts, scored dramatic gains. All of the 11 states of the old Confederacy had increases in their total presidential vote and 10 of the 11 showed percentage increases—some of them marked.

GEORGIA UP

Georgia, for instance, was up from 30.2 per cent to 43.2 per cent; Arkansas was up from 40.9 to 49.9; South Carolina jumped from 30.3 to 38; and Virginia climbed from 32.9 to 41.

Over-all, the Southern popular vote rose by a little more than 2 million—from 10.2 million to 12.3 million—in contrast with the national increase of 1.8 million.

Goldwater's total in the 10 Southern states was 5,993,319, an increase of 1.27 million over Richard M. Nixon's total there in 1960. Goldwater ran about 8.5 million votes behind Nixon in the rest of the nation.

Johnson's total was 8,899,122 higher than John F. Kennedy's in 1960.

Johnson's victory margin of almost 16 million and his 61 per cent share of the total vote set new U.S. political records. So, too, did his popular vote total, far surpassing the 35.5 million racked up by Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1956.

Goldwater Says Nixon, Hatfield, Scranton Contenders For 1968

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater pointed today to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Govs. Mark O. Hatfield, George Romney and William W. Scranton as potential contenders for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

He said he thinks that as of now Nixon "has the biggest hand upon the wheel."

For himself, the beaten GOP nominee shunned the role of national party leader and ruled out another race for the White House.

He said he will be "a working member" of the party.

Goldwater, in a copyright interview with U.S. News and World Report, defended GOP National Chairman Dean Burch, insisted his landslide loss to President Lyndon B. Johnson did not cripple the conservative movement and declared his presidential bid was over before it really began.

He said only former President Dwight D. Eisenhower could have beaten Johnson for the Republicans.

"Frankly," he said, "I think that I was beaten July 15." That was the day the Republican National Convention nominated him for the White House.

Goldwater said the whole campaign "was run on fear of me," and that fear was planted before he was nominated.

The Arizona senator said his Republican challengers painted "a caricature of Goldwater," depicting him as a trigger-happy man and a foe of the Social Security system.

"This thing started in the primaries — and, try as I would, it could not be erased," he said.

"The only thing that I think might have been done could have been done by those in the Republican party who first started it," he said.

Goldwater blamed Romney and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller — "not Scranton so much because Scranton pitched in." The Pennsylvania governor campaigned for the national ticket.

Goldwater said no Republican who was mentioned for the nomination during the primary days could have beaten Johnson. "I don't know of any other one that could have gotten as many states as I got," he said. Goldwater carried six.

Johnson, he said, refused to discuss the issues in his campaign — and used the full muscle of the federal government.

"It wasn't a case of the Republican party running against the Democratic party," he said. "It was the Republican Party running against the federal government."

Three Held For Blast At Negro Church

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Police held three men without bond today in connection with an explosive device that went off outside the Negro First Baptist church yesterday.

Although there was a large crowd of church goers, on one was injured and the church escaped damage.

The three men, arrested by a plainclothes policeman who witnessed the incident, were charged with setting off explosives in or near an inhabited building. The charge carries a maximum penalty of death in the electric chair.

Police identified the men as Henry Alexander, 35; James White, 31, and Donald Landers, 19, all of Montgomery.

The First Baptist was one of four Negro churches dynamited in Montgomery in 1957 — and one of the men arrested was among four indicted for the church bombings almost seven years ago.

Mansfield For Proxy Vote On Party Whip

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield favors permitting senators to vote by proxy if necessary in the red hot battle for party whip to succeed vice president-elect Hubert H. Humphrey.

Mansfield is maintaining a hands-off attitude toward the spirited contest among Sens. Russell B. Long (D-La.), A. S. Mike Monroney, (D-Okla.) and John O. Pastore (D-R.I.).

The issue will be settled when the 68 Democratic senators meet for a party caucus on Jan. 4, just before the new 89th Congress opens.

Mansfield said he felt every Democratic senator should have a voice in the contest. He said absentees would be allowed to vote by proxy.

Many Democrats have been looking for some sign from President Lyndon B. Johnson as to his choice in the race. He has not indicated he will change his attitude or neutrality.

The battle shapes up as the liveliest in years in senate Democratic leadership ranks.

Some observers regard Long and Pastore as probable leaders on the first ballot. But Monroney, the last to declare his candidacy, has been working hard and moving up strong.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Me.) is a compromise possibility.

Long, 46, is a veteran of 16 years in the Senate. He is the son of the late Huey P. (Kingfish) Long.

Monroney, a handsome, youthful 62, was elected to the Senate in 1950 after 12 years in the house.

Johnson Defends End Of Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson says the plan to abolish the Army Reserves is "prudent and wise."

The Reserve Officers Assn. disagrees and demands a thorough investigation of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's plan to do away with the Reserves by merging some units into the National Guard and placing the rest on inactive status.

The association said the Air Force Reserve will be the next to go.

McNamara's proposal—aimed at saving 150 million dollars yearly by abolishing units which the defense secretary says are no longer needed—faces some stiff opposition on Capitol Hill. Congress has control over such proposals at least to the extent of providing money to carry them out.

Plans involving Army National Guard changes also are under discussion. Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes said last night that current planning concepts call for the six high-priority and two special-purpose divisions of the Guard to be converted into a division base and one brigade. But he said this was a concept "and not a firm plan," to be considered by the Army in conjunction with Reserve and National Guard authorities.

Some congressional criticism on the Reserve plan has been sharp and two congressional inquiries have already been promised in the wake of Saturday's announcement by McNamara.

Chairman F. Edward Hebert, (D-La.), of the House Armed Services subcommittee on the Reserves and National Guard, said McNamara "demonstrated his contempt for Congress" by issuing the plan.

Chairman John Stennis (D-Miss.), of the Senate Armed Services Preparedness subcommittee, said he'll do his utmost to maintain the Reserve force and expressed the belief Congress must approve the plan before it can go into effect.

Both men said their subcommittees will hold hearings on the plan next year but no dates were set.

Johnson's public endorsement of McNamara's decision was disclosed in an exchange of letters with Rear Adm. Edgar G. Reeder, Reserve Officers Assn. president, who had asked Johnson to reverse it.

The president's reply was dated Dec. 12 and made public by the ROA yesterday. It read in part:

"I am sure you share my belief in economy in government and maximum combat readiness for our forces, and I know that you will agree—when you are fully acquainted with the nature of the realignment — that this move is both prudent and wise."

STILT HOUSES

Newest People Nests Perch On Precipices

By DORIS KLEIN

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"There is only one problem living on stilts," says bachelor movie director Bill Dewar.

Dewar, 29, is otherwise sold on the controversial, spindly legged home he purchased four months ago in the Santa Monica Mountains, overlooking the suburban San Fernando Valley.

Some of his neighbors—and some civic organizations—are not as enchanted.

But the real growth has come in the last few years as a lot-with-a-view became increasingly rare in metropolitan Los Angeles.

The houses jut from steep slopes, their long, steel or wood legs anchored in deep concrete foundations, dug into the hillside.

"I can see 250 square miles," says Dewar. "Airplanes seem to hover in the skies nearby."

"Artistic people seem to like them," says Mrs. Mary Riggle, real estate woman who sold Dewar his house. "We have actresses, artists, musicians, directors—mostly bachelors or married couples without children.

The houses sell for from $35,000 to $50,000 for two bedrooms or two and a den, or rent for about $275 a month.

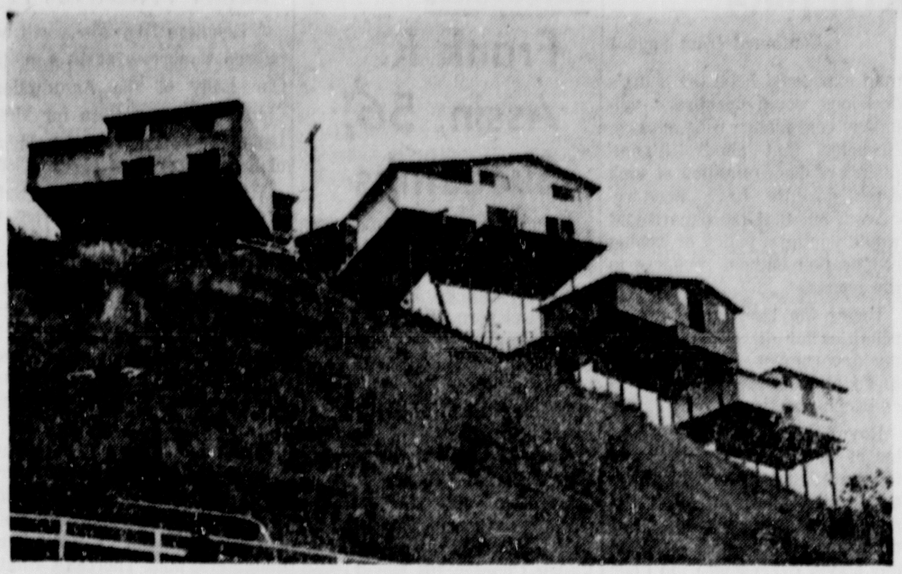

The City Building and Safety Department declares they are safe.

"They've never been tested in a Southern California earthquake," says Chase. "We've been told those foundations would vibrate like tuning forks."

But bachelor Dewar says he only has trouble when he gives a party:

"Everyone wants to stay until dawn to watch the sun come up."

'INDECENT EXPOSURE' is what architects who don't design "stilt" houses in the Los Angeles area or what they call "pole" houses in Marin County, term the newest way to build a home with a view. "Look at all those foundations, plumbing and heating ducts hanging out below," complain the anti-stilt factions. (AP Wirephoto)

Money Stolen

Erika A. M. Beauchart of 301 D Street, Apt. 19, San Rafael, told police someone stole $21 from the top of a dresser in her 14-year-old daughter Esther's bedroom Friday.

Police Write Finis To Date After Curfew

A 20-year-old California Park youth never got to see his 16-year-old date to the door when they went out Saturday night.

They both wound up behind bars instead.

San Rafael police picked up Gary William Macher of 123 Auburn Street, and a 16-year-old Novato girl, at a drive-in parking lot at Third and A Streets.

Mocher said he was waiting for a friend to bring him his car keys, which he said had been lost in an unhappy chain of events during the evening.

Unmoved, police took the girl to juvenile hall on a curfew violation charge and booked Mocher at county jail on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Car Part Taken

Church Inferno Hero Honored After Death

The Soldier's Medal, highest army award for peacetime deeds involving risk of life, will be presented to the widow of a Samoan-American soldier stationed at Fort Cronkhite who gave his life attempting to rescue a youngster trapped in a church fire.

Specialist 5 Aoese Osimalo, 27, who was the hero of the incident, was a member of the Fort Cronkhite Nike Hercules battery of the 40th Artillery Brigade, a subordinate unit of 6th Region.

Osimalo and his 23-year-old wife of 10 days, Leima, were attending a benefit last May sponsored by the Samoan Catholic Benefit Society of All Hallows Church in San Francisco one evening. Seated near an exit, the couple escaped unharmed when gasoline used in a Samoan fire dance became ignited accidentally.

But when the soldier heard cries of persons trapped inside he reentered the blazing building, snatched up a 6-year-old boy with clothing afire, and carried him to safety.

The child lived but Osimalo died three days later. Eighteen others also perished.

The medal will be presented to Mrs. Leima, now living in San Francisco, at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Fort Scott parade grounds of the Presidio in San Francisco. Making the posthumous presentation will be Maj. Gen. Andrew Lolli, commanding general of 6th Region, U.S. Army Air Defense Command, Fort Baker.

Proposition 14 Challenge Filed In Sacramento

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legal action challenging the constitutionality of Prop. 14 was filed in Sacramento County Superior Court today.

Nathaniel S. Colley, attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people, filed the action on behalf of a Negro tenant threatened with eviction.

Prop. 14, approved by a margin of 2-1 at the Nov. 3 election, nullified California's law against racial discrimination in housing and gave property owners "absolute discretion" to refuse to sell, rent or lease to any person for any reason.

Boy Hurt As Bike, Car Hit

A 10-year-old San Rafael boy suffered cuts on his scalp and left knee when he rode his bicycle into a neighbor's car in the 300 block of Coleman Drive, San Rafael, at 11:06 a.m. Saturday.

Treated at San Rafael General Hospital was Wayne Robert Lechner, of 98 Chula Vista Drive. San Rafael police said his bike collided with an Austin-Healy driven by William D. Kuperus, 22, of 142 Chula Vista Drive.

Kuperus told police his vision was impeded by two large stacks of lumber on the roadside. By the time he saw the youngster coming down a hill toward him, Kuperus contended, he was unable to avoid the accident.

Sleepy Driver Is Injured

The 1955-model westbound car ran off the road and down a small embankment. It crashed into a fence separating Center Boulevard from Alder Aveune at the foot of the embankment, flipped over and came to rest near 135 Adler Avenue.

Jones, a bartender at Oscar's, 114 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, was helped from the car by San Anselmo police officers and taken by ambulance to San Rafael General Hospital where he was treated and sent home.

lieve we share with you. The exact amount of this underground system is as yet unknown.

"We further believe that the salt left when the big lagoon finally dried up is what contaminates your water supply and our well supply.

"We propose to supply water to your pump similar to your present water for the next four months, said the ranch owner, in an attempt to discover if we can lower the salt content and determine the availability of the underground reservoir. This would serve to give you all a period in which to fix your inadequate pumping system. A submersible pump in the bottom of your well would solve your immediate problems for two or more years and would cost in the neighborhood of $250. The present pump would then pump the water up to your present tanks."

Trail Of Clues Leads To Owner, Not A Burglar

San Rafael Police Officer Philip D. Green spotted a rear window broken at Al's A La Kart catering service, 2147 Francisco Boulevard, about 1:30 this morning.

It looked like a sure burglary, when the officer noticed a trail of burned matches inside the building and several bites taken out of sandwiches and cakes inside a metal basket.

But when Officer Green called the owner, Robert Kenneth Weeks of 150 Corte Balboa, he discovered that everything was all right.

The owner explained he had broken into the place himself because he did not have the keys, and wanted to ignite the burners in his establishment.

Someone stole $384 in cash from his wallet, Robert Meldey of 400 Canal Street, San Rafael, complained to police last night.

He told San Rafael police officer, Ronald Averiette, that the thief must have slipped in through the unlocked door and taken the cash from his wallet while he slept.

Credit cards and three checks totaling $450 was untouched, but the cash was all missing.

Disagreement In Restaurant Ends In Jail

Fred Aron Sikes, 20, of 313 Irwin Street, San Rafael, was jailed about 2:30 a.m. today on suspicion of being drunk at the Griddle Restaurant in San Rafael.

San Rafael Police Officer Bart Stinson questioned witnesses at the restaurant and got this account of what happened:

Sikes had been bothering Miss Laurie Britt of 70 Elms Avenue, San Anselmo, a patron at the restaurant. Miss Britt had repeatedly told him to leave her alone.

Another patron, Joseph Burton O'Gorman of 1309 Clinton Court, San Rafael, told Sikes not to bother the girl and a fight ensued. O'Gorman struck Sikes in the mouth.

Officer Stinson said he found Sikes bleeding in the face, standing near the cash register. Sikes bailed himself out of jail for $29. He is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Wednesday afternoon.

TAX

and household furnishings from the local property taxes.

He said it is virtually impossible to assess equitably these two classes of property and "administrative costs are excessive compared to the amount of revenue produced."

Here are other suggestions offered by the tax-collecting board:

1. Elimination of the current $1 fee for the issuance of seller permits to retail businessmen. The permits to do business would be granted free of charge, but should the permit be revoked for any infraction, a $15 fee would be charged for reissuance.

2. Erasing the current exemption in the state law that permits an individual to sell one automobile a year to another person without the payment of a use tax. Lynch said all sales of cars should be subjected to the use tax and would bring the state an additional $4 to $6 million annually.

3. Removal from the State Constitution the office deduction now granted insurance companies.

4. Tax private railroad cars on the same basis as other common property.

Errant Driver Tears Up Old Landmarks

Charles A. Brown, Sausalito city manager, awoke "with a start" at 2:08 a.m. today when a driver, who failed to negotiate a turn, hit the railing of the Brown house with his car at 192 Spencer Avenue.

The car, police reported, first hit the driveway ramp railing of the house next door which is rented by George Tarros at 196 Spencer Avenue, ripping 12 to 15 feet of the railing off.

It then tore 10 feet of Brown's railing down and became wedged with two front wheels hanging down between the Tarros and Brown driveway ramps. Police sought the hit-run driver today, said Chief Kenneth H. Huck.

Police refused to disclose the registry of the car until they determine who was driving.

Last Rites Held For Socialite

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Funeral services were held at Grace Cathedral today for Phyllis Fraser, a pace-setting member of San Francisco jet set society, who died Friday at the age of 34.

Right Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of California, conducted the rites. He was a personal friend of Mrs. Fraser.

The body of Mrs. Fraser, a divorcee, was found early Friday at the home of a friend, Mrs. Hans Klussmann, with whom she had been staying to recover from influenza. Friends said she had suffered for the past two years from heart and liver ailments.

RULING

man expressed hope the court's decisions would encourage voluntary compliance with the law. He noted that about 650 complaints of discrimination at such establishments have been received, but that the department would pursue a policy of wooing cooperation without recourse to the courts.

Under the law, there are no penalties for discrimination but the government is empowered to go to coure for an order to end such practices.

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advanmements of Colored People (NAACP), said the rulings "should promptly end discrimination in public accommodations everywhere in our country."

However, Moreton Rolleston Jr., owner of the Heart of Atlanta hotel who brought the test cast, said the decision "makes possible a socialistic state and eventual dictatorship."

A three-judge federal court in Atlanta had ruled that the public accommodations statute was valid, and ordered the motel to accept Negro customers. While the case was being carried to the Supreme Court, the motel complied.

In the restaurant case, a similar three-judge panel in Birmingham had declared the law was not applicable to Ollie's Barbecue, which made no effort to attract transient customers. The Supreme Court reversed that finding mainly because a high percentage of the food it served travelled through interstate commerce.

The sit-in ruling under the civil rights act came as a slight surprise. The 5-4 decision by Clark reversed the convictions of Negro students in Rock Hill, S.C., and Little Rock, Ark., who were arrested for demonstrations in 1960—four years before passage of the law.

The retroactive application was expected to nullify state and local proceedings against about 3,000 sit-in participants whose cases are either still untried or being appealed.

In the majority opinion, Clark said that "in effect, the act prohibits the application of state laws in a way that would deprive any person of the rights granted under the act."

He cited the "supremacy clause" of the constitution which says federal law must prevail when there is a conflict with state statutes.

"There can be no question that this was the intended result here," Clark said. ". . . The present convictions and the command of the civil rights act of 1964 are in direct conflict."

Justices Black, John Harlan, Byron White and Potter Stewart strongly dissented on the sit-in ruling.

Black said the court was issuing a command barring the states from prosecuting law violations prior to passage of the civil rights bill.

Passenger Hurt As Cars Collide

Madalene Zimmerman, 78, of San Francisco, suffered a cut on her forehead when the car in which she was riding collided with another at the intersection of Highway 101 and Vallejo Avenue in Novato at 5:15 p.m. Saturday.

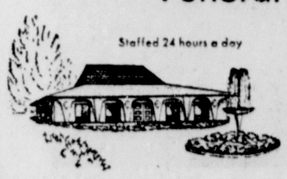

The California Highway Patrol said a westbound car driven by Leslie Ann Bitella, 18, of 480 Alameda de la Loma, Raphael Village, pulled from Vallejo Avenue into the highway and was hit by that of Jack Edward Edsell, 61, of San Francisco.

The injured woman was in Edsell's southbound car. Miss Zitella was cited for failing to yield the right of way.

Bolinas Lagoon Waste Dumping On Agenda

Settlement of the issue of whether there may be discharge of treated waste into the Bolinas Lagoon waters might be reached at a meeting of the Regional Water Pollution Control Board No. 2 in Oakland Thursday.

This is first matter on session starting at 10 a.m.

Up for consideration is a long-range plan and policy for water pollution control in the area pursuant to a motion of the regional board last May 21.

Against contention of the Public Utilities District that discharge of waste into lagoon waters should be permitted provided there has been advance treatment, it has been the attitude of the State Department of Public Health that if any waste is discharged, whether treated or otherwise, clams cannot be taken in the area for human consumption.

The board will hear a plea for more time on behalf of St. Vincent's School for Boys. Improvements in waste disposal have been ordered but the school hopes to be allowed to await development of property in the area so that the cost of line connecting to the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District can be shared.

A self-monitoring program and schedule of sampling and analyses for Sanitary District No. 6 of Marin County and the Ignacio and Novato Treatment Plants will be up for adoption by the board.

The board is expected to adopt a program for self-monitoring and a schedule of sampling and analyses for the Smith Brothers' dairy on the north fork of Gallinas Creek.

Untouchables Are Elected Yell Leaders

Four seniors who call themselves "the Untouchables" were elected as basketball yell leaders at Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo Friday.

The group including Lee Jamison, Mike Miller, Joanne Ray and Cathy Stegenga was the only formal slate of candidates in the student election, but reportedly scored only a narrow victory over five write-in candidates.

School policy forbids releasing the vote count, however.

Seven others were elected from 31 candidates for song leaders. They were Kristine Carlsen, Don Eastman, Mary Gallagher, Lynette Pareglio, Valerie McLorg, and sisters Sally and Susie Reichert. All are seniors except Sally Reichert, a junior, and Susie Reichert, a freshman.

Veterinary Hospital Checks Are Stolen

Cash and checks totalling $249 were taken last night by someone who broke into the Terra Linda Veterinary Hospital, 4144 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, Dr. William E. Rushworth told police Saturday.

San Rafael police said the burglar forced a rear door, then removed $153.50 in cash, plus seven checks worth a total of $95.50 from a desk drawer. A safe was left untouched.

Tools Taken From Construction Shack

Someone who broke into a pair of construction shacks at the site of Unitarian-Universalist Church of Marin's new building on Channing Way, San Rafael, stole $115 in tools, San Rafael police said Saturday.

The theft involved tools owned by Herrero Brothers of San Francisco, David V. McCombs of Sebastopol and Weber Plastering Inc. of 23 Dunfries Terrace, San Rafael.

Coin-Operated Machines Rifled

Two coin-operated beverage machines were reported broken into in the San Rafael area Friday, according to police.

Reports came from Paul R. Pesce, sales manager of the 7-Up Bottling Co., 43 Tiburon Street, San Rafael. He said $20 was taken from a machine in a building housing two firms at 623 Irwin Street, and a small amount of money was taken from another machine at the Richfield Service Station, 901 Francisco Boulevard.

Two reports of similar thefts were filed with San Rafael police last week. Pesce said keys stolen from another bottling firm several months ago could have been used.

U.S. Officer Wounded By Deadly Game

SAIGON (UPI) — A game of catch with a hand grenade between a U.S. Army officer and a communist guerrilla today cost the American his left forearm.

A U.S. military spokesman said the incident occurred at a Vietnamese army regimental headquarters in Long Ho 60 miles southwest of Saigon.

The officer was inspecting guard posts around the installation when the grenade sailed over the fence. The officer picked it up to throw it back but the grenade exploded in his hand before he could release it.

The spokesman said the officer was flown to the U.S. Army dispensary at Soc Trang. His condition was described as "serious."

The officer was not identified pending notification of relatives in the United States.

PLAY FOR SLAYERS

Boys Live, Tell Congo Atrocity

FORT WASHINGTON, Pa. (UPI)—Two boys who saw their missionary father shot to death by Congo rebels prayed for his slayers after they feigned death to escape a similar fate.

The ordeal of Murray Taylor, 12, and his brother Barry, 10, was revealed in a letter received at headquarters here of the Worldwide Evangelization Crusade, which operated the Hearts of Africa Mission in the Congo.

"Mummy, Dad is gone to be with Jesus," the boys told their mother after escaping the rebel bullets. They then fell to their knees and prayed for their father's slayers.

The boys were two of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Taylor of New Zealand. They were removed from their mission compound at Lowa State, northeast of Stanleyville by the rebels and taken to Stanleyville by motorboat and train.

With them were Mary Harrison Scotland and Muriel Harman of Canada.

The letter said that when Belgian paratroopers arrived and the fighting began, Mrs. Taylor and her four children were outside the prison. A mortar shell fell nearby, killing 10 rebels.

The prison guard became enraged and attacked Mrs. Taylor and her younger children, Colleen, 5, and Pauline, 3, with a bayonet. Mrs. Taylor suffered wounds on her head and hand and her arm was broken in two places. Colleen suffered wounds of the forehead and the top of her head.

Later, the letter said, the rebels ordered all prisoners out of a dungeon except Mrs. Taylor, her two younger children, and Miss Harrison, who had a broken leg. The captives were lined up on both sides of a long room and rebels with automatic rifles went down each line killing them.

"Cyril (Taylor) being the first in line and dear Muriel Harman were with the Lord immediately," the letter said. "Murray and Barry fell down among the corpses, feigning death, and so were saved."

Thailand Jails More Air Force Generals

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI) — Prime Minister Thanom Kittikachorn today announced the arrest of two more air force generals in connection with the Dec. 3 plot to overthrow the Thai government. He declined to disclose their names.

Nazi Crimes Trial Moves To Grim Site

OSWIECIM, Poland (UPI) — A West German war crime trial opened an unusual session at the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp today to verify testimony against 20 former Nazis accused of killing millions of Jews for Adolf Hitler.

The trial was temporarily moved here from Frankfurt where it began a year ago.

It was at Auschwitz that the Nazis systematically exterminated between 2.5 million and 4 million Jews in Hitler's "final solution to the Jewish problem."

Former Auschwitz inmates, testifying against the 20 defendants in Frankfurt, have described the concentration camp's horrors and the purpose of the sessions here is to determine the veracity of that testimony.

Today's session opened with a minute of silence ordered by Judge Walter Hotz at the camp's so-called "black wall" where thousands of Jews were mowed down by Nazi machinegunners.

Wreck Kills Bay Building Millionaire

SAN RAMON (AP) — Four persons, including millionaire San Francisco Bay Area builder Max Schmidt and his wife, were killed Sunday night in a head-on auto collision near San Ramon.

Mrs. Schmidt's two children by a previous marriage were critically injured.

Killed outright in the crash on California 21 in Contra Costa County were Schmidt, 56; his wife Patricia, 33, and two occupants of the other car, Edwin N. Van Scriber, 47, and his wife Lucille, 40, of Pleasanton.

The children, Clinton Chalmers, 5, and Bruce Chalmers, 3, were rushed to Kaiser Foundation hospital in Walnut Creek. Doctors there said they suffered multiple fractures and possible head and internal injuries.

Highway Patrolman George Young said the Schmidt car was attempting to pass another auto when the collision occurred. A newly purchased Christmas tree was found in the trunk.

Schmidt built several Bay Area shopping centers and was owner of the Phelan Building in San Francisco. He and his wife lived on an estate in Contra Costa County. They were married in November 1963.

Dirksen Not Sanguine Over Policy Council

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said today he is concerned with "the problem of diffusion" that might beset a proposed Republican party policy council.

Dirksen, the Senate GOP leader, said in a telephone interview that he had been giving serious consideration to a proposal unanimously approved by 18 Republican governors and governors-elect at a Denver, Colo., meeting for establishment of a policy group on which all shades of party opinion would be represented.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the Republican standard-bearer defeated by President Lyndon B. Johnson in last month's elections, said today in a copyright interview in U.S. News World Report that day-to-day leadership of the party must come from Dirksen and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House GOP leader.

Goldwater said he believes his hand-picked party chairman, Dean Burch, will keep his job. He said a vote of no confidence in Burch "would be aimed right at me and at millions of people who've been working their hearts out in this party for what they believe in."

Dirksen, without putting it in so many words, made it clear he believes Republicans in Congress are going to write the party's record for the 1966 elections.

He recalled that when the late Chairman Paul Butler set up a Democratic Advisory Council during the Eisenhower administration, its policy pronouncements largely were ignored by then Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

"There is the problem of diffusion of party expressions," Dirksen said. "The Republicans in Congress are going to have to decide for themselves how to vote on specific proposals. They couldn't be bound by any policy council pronouncement of the party's position."

Fair Housing Issue Splits Rights Group

FRESNO (AP) — A Palo Alto realtor threw a one-day legislative conference of the California Committee for Fair Practices into a turmoil here Saturday by suggesting the fight for equal housing is the burning civil rights issue in the Golden State.

Leonard Cornell insisted "We need a greater cross section of persons to work with." He pointed out that during the campaign to defeat Proposition 14, "we had the support of both Republicans and Democrats who are not interested in the civil rights movement but are interested in fair housing."

The 12-year-old organization, which represents 165 civil rights groups met to try to agree about legislation in the fields of housing, employment and public schools. However, the 300 persons who attended went away split into two factions — one backing all civil rights legislation, the other supporting fair housing measures alone.

MUSICALLY MATURE

College Vocal, Band Events Please Critics

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Remarkable progress made by the College of Marin music department was revealed over the weekend in two very different programs in the new gymnasium.

The first was the winter concert Saturday night of the Community Band directed by John H. Myers, and the second was a performance last night by the Community Chorus of Handel's oratorio "Samson" under the baton of Dr. S. Drummond Wolff.

A surprise was the high level of musical entertainment offered by the 56-piece band, which not only played like a real concert group but looked like one in formal attire.

All but two of the numbers were original compositions for band, but the two that were not were of special interest.

These were a J. S. Bach little prelude and fugue arranged by Myers himself, which showed how infinitely adaptable Bach is, and a Lucian Caillet arrangement of Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral from Wagner's "Lohengrin." Despite absence of strings the latter had an almost orchestral sonority.

Completing the program were "Classic Overture" by Gossec, a folk song suite by Vaughan Williams and four rousing marches—Fillmore's Americans We," Alford's "Glory of the Gridiron," Prokofieff's March, Opus 99, and the ever popular "Stars and Stripes Forever" and "Anchors Aweigh," the last an encore.

The performance of "Samson" was no surprise, for we have grown accustomed to Dr. Wolff's masterful handling of choruses. He is a perfectionist whose discipline produces wonderfully precise technical proficiency and thrilling dynamic climaxes.

This was a major effort, for the performing ensemble included some 90 voices, four soloists, organ and a 16-piece chamber orchestra.

Soprano Silvia Davis' voice was the best suited in quality and training to the baroque style. Edward James has a beautiful tenor voice and handled his solos capably, but because John Dyar is no bass, required in the role, he was effective only in the barotine range. Contralto Ann Graver's voice had a velvety, mellow texture but lacked volume at times.

Aiden Gilchrist was an extraordinarily fine organist, and the orchestra performed well.

Since clarity of diction seemed much better when we were standing in the rear than when seated on the flat floor, it may be assumed the acoustics were at least partly at fault.

The major flaw was the length of the performance. We are living in a different age from that of the heyday of the great oratorios, and three and a half hours, even of Handel, are too formidable for many people, as some proved by leaving at intermission.

Driver Injured As Truck Flops

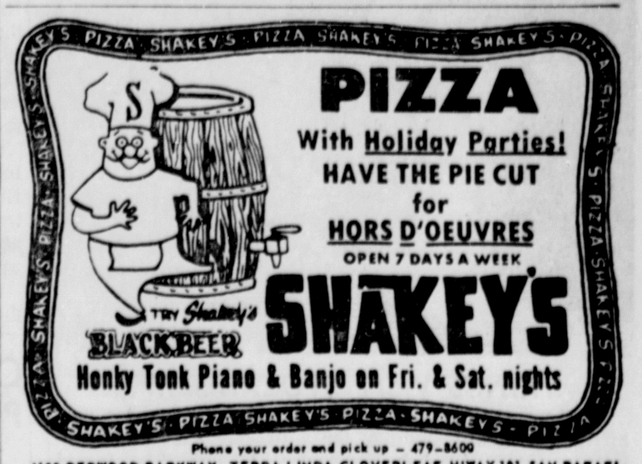

A Santa Venetia man had to be helped from his overturned pickup truck by three police officers Saturday night after it missed a curve, started up a steep driveway, then flopped on its side and slid back into Woodland Avenue.

Arthur Donald Swaser, 39, of 95 Sunny Oak Drive was admitted to San Rafael General Hospital for treatment of a cut on his head.

San Rafael police said Swaser's truck apparently approached the curve at high speed. It traveled 40 feet up the steep drive, leading to 1 Woodland Avenue, before it dropped 12 feet to the road level, then slid another seven feet on its side, they said.

Canlett of 336 Ferndale Avenue, Mill Valley, has been promoted to the rank of specialist four while serving with the Army's fourth armored division's fourth cavalry near Schwabach, Germany, as an operations assistant. A graduate of Tamalpais High School in 1962, he entered the Army in 1963.

School Finance Problem On Docket For Tomorrow

A proposed 50-cent increase in the operating tax limit in San Rafael Elementary District will come up again when the San Rafael Board of Education meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the administration building at Third and E Streets.

Board members are scheduled to discuss the date for a Dixie-San Rafael school district unification election. If a unification proposal is passed by San Rafael district voters before June 30, the district would get an additional estimated $65,000 from the state, which would have bearing on the proposed tax limit increase.

High school district finances are also due to come before the board tomorrow when business manager Charles L. Condrotte gives budget projections for the 1965-66 school year.

The board is to take up curriculum revisions and additions, including a proposal to hire a man to coordinate a work experience program.

The agenda includes consideration of a new resolution for sale of series B of the 1964 bond issue in the amount of $500,000, student teacher agreements with San Francisco State College and the University of California, and the recreation and parks department program.

Reports are slated for presentation on the status of the board second East San Rafael school site, health services, a program of course work for 11th and 12th grade English students, and sand removal at the East San Rafael Elementary School site.

The board will also be asked to pay $4,470.71 to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for corrected meter readings at Terra Linda High School retroactive to 1960.

Carroll Baker Suing Over Article, Photos

NEW YORK (UPI)—An attorney for Carrol Baker said Saturday the blonde movie actress planned to sue Playboy Magazine for $1 million in damages in connection with its publication of an article including nearly-nude photos of her.

Attorney Arnold Weissberger said Miss Baker would charge that Playboy failed to honor its agreement that all text and photographs would be submitted to her before their publication in the December issue.

KINGS VISIT STOCKHOLM

Pole Urges East, West Peace Parley

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Poland called today for an all-European conference, including the United States and the Soviet Union, to study the problems of Europe's security.

Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki, in a policy speech to the General Assembly, suggested that the powers of the Warsaw Treaty and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization set up the security talks.

Shortly after Rapacki spoke, Indian Foreign Minister Swaran Eingh warned that the cold war truce "seems to be fading out" and there is danger of an east-west hot war.

For the first time in 15 years, the Indian delegation made no mention of seating Peking's representatives, although it will vote to give China's U. N. place to the communists. Instead, Swaran Singh unleashed a new attack on Red China.

"The deterioration of the situation in southeast Asia, and the emergence of new conflicts in the Mediterranean, the heart of Africa and, indeed on our own borders, are each of them capable of escalation which might ultimately lead to a general conflagration," the Indian said in referring to the cold war "fade out."

Ernesto (Che) Guevara, Fidel Castro's right hand man in the Cuban government, was in the assembly hall again today. As a result of last Friday's disorders, in which a bazooka shell was fired at the U. N. headquarters while anti-Castro pickets demonstrated on the street, security precautions remained tight. Extra squads of New York police stood 25 feet apart along the front of the U. N. enclave while police boats patrolled the river. Inside the building, the U. N. guard force was at full strength.

Motorcyclist Not Only Hurt, But Cited, Too

A 22-year-old San Francisco man suffered a broken elbow when his motorcycle went off the road on Highway 1, a mile east of Stinson Beach at 8:30 a.m. yesterday.

Jack V. Levine was in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. The California Highway Patrol said Levine was thrown from the cycle when it went into a ditch.

Levine told officers he reached for the clutch lever to shift to a lower gear as he went into a left-hand curve, but hit a previously injured finger on the handle. Reacting to the pain, he failed to shift and lost control.

He was cited for failing to maintain control on a mountain road.

Tiburon Planners Become Shutterbugs Over Signs

Photos from a Polaroid camera have been used to convince alleged violators of the city's sign ordinance that they should apply for a use permit, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose said.

Photographs of some of the 23 signs which Rose said he counted on Red Hill have proved to some sign owners that they need a city permit, Rose said.

The camera has been used to prove to one property owner that an open culvert on his land is a nuisance, Rose reported. Photos taken after recent rains have been used to show representatives of the State Division of Highways that there is a drainage problem near Tiburon Boulevard.

The camera was purchased by Rose about a month ago and will cost the city $67.63, including some film. Councilmen will be asked to approve payment of the bill at tonight's council meeting.

The camera will be used mainly by the city's department of lands and improvements to check building-zoning violations, such as construction without a permit, setback violations, illegal duplexes, Rose said.

The city manager said he has used his own camera to take photos along Tiburon Boulevard to be used in an attempt to convince state highway officials that the road should be designated a "scenic" route.

The Tiburon City Council will also consider a city moratorium on tideland fill and discuss asking the county to place a moratorium on fill for areas within its jurisdiction.

The council will meet at 8 p.m. today at the library of Del Mar School. Councilmen also will discuss a resolution asking that the Marin County Board of Supervisors prepare a county general plan governing tideland development and that supervisors also prepare a bulkhead line for unincorporated portions of the Tiburon Peninsula.

Councilmen will again be asked tonight to approve Harbor Cove's dredging of 180 feet of Salt Works Canal within the city limits to obtain fill for use outside the city.

If all the ice in antarctica melted the water in the oceans would rise about 100 feet, inundating coastal cities such as New York, Tokyo and Rio De Janeiro.

Camera Club Plans Dinner

The Ross Valley Camera Club will have its annual pot luck supper at the Greenbrae School at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

John Bissinger of Kentfield, a retired architect, will present his photographs of Europe, showing European architecture. Club members will display their prints and slides taken during the club's field trips this year.

Adult Education Courses On Tap

Approval of two new adult education courses, "Latin For the Layman" and "Plant Life of Marin County," to be offered at the College of Marin next spring, will be considered by the Marin Junior College district board at 8 p.m. Thursday in room 24, Harlan Hall, on the Kentfield campus.

Discussion on bids for two portable classroom buildings, locations for a football stadium and track and enrollment estimates for 1965-66 are scheduled.

The tiny village of Ocracoke, N. C., at the toe of a slim island on the stormy Outer Banks, still depends on the sea for its income, for food and as a lure to visitors seeking quiet, rest and sport. There life moves at a leisurely pace.

Novato Trustees To Confirm Hiring Pacts

The new Novato Unified School District board will consider final approval to the contracts for superintendent and deputy superintendent when it meets at approximately 8:30 p.m. today in the administration building.

This meeting will follow immediately after the old Novato Unified School District board meeting.

At its meeting last week, the board gave Supt. James G. Bunker a four year contract as supt. of the new district and Ralph Giovanniello, superintendent of the San Jose District, a four year contract as deputy superintendent of the new district. Bunker's salary was set at $20,000 and Giovanniello's at $16,500 per year.

The trustees will discuss the advisability of getting a consulting service to help determine the administrative staff for the new unified district.

The board will also hear a report from Bunker and Giovanniello on school sites in both areas of the district.

The board will discuss the additions to Novato High School and review future construction in the district.

In the earlier meeting, trustees of the old district will review the building program when view the building program at 8 p.m.

The board will also discuss the additions to the high school which will bring it up to 1,800 student capacity and name an inspector for the construction job.

The board will review the grading to the Rancho School site additions, and discuss planning money available for the new high school in San Marin.

90 Days Are Given In Forgery Case

A 90-day sentence in Marin County jail was given Charles Edgar McDuffie, 30, today by Marin Superior Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. for two counts of forgery.

McDuffie, of Rosenberg, Tex., passed a $147.86 forged check Oct. 9 at the Cellars, 534 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and another at San Rafael Recreation Parlor, 842 Fourth Street, the following day.

Two Youngsters Die While Digging Cave

BAKERSFIELD (UPI)—Two children who were tunneling into the side of an old excavation near their home were killed Saturday when the wall of the excavation collapsed and buried them.

The victims were John Lee Oxford, 12, and his 8-year-old sister, Nina Marie, the children of William H. Oxford. Their brother, 13-year-old Shannon, narrowly escaped death when rescuers, including Oxford, reached him before he suffocated.

Apartments Zoning Sought In Novato

The Novato Planning Commission will consider a change from single family to multiple family zoning on property on Center Road west of Diablo Avenue at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

McGillicuddy, Inc., has asked for the zone change for the property which is adjacent to the apartments at the northwest corner of Center Road and Diablo Avenue.

The same firm is asking for approval of the tentative map of Bret Court subdivision of 10 lots on four acres on the north side of Center Road east of the Westwood subdivision.

John A. Lyddon is asking for a use permit for a mobile home park on 120 acres south of Hamilton Air Force Base east of Highway 101.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is asking for architectural approval for plans for an addition to the church at 2103 Center Road.

Other items to come before the commission include applications for adjustments from Dunya Cernenko to build an apartment building within five feet of the rear property line where 15 feet is required at 1025 Second Street and from Bill Allen for a four-by-eight foot sign for a car wash at 1130 First Street; a request from James Roberts for a division of land on the west side of McClay Road south of Novato Boulevard into three lots and from Alfred Bellucci for a division of a lot on Indian Valley Road into three lots; the tentative map of Kaden Park Unit 2 of 20 acres in 45 lots and architectural approval for plans for a nursery of James E. Eggers at 2004 Novato Boulevard.

74 Per Cent Of Tam Grads Entered College In Fall

Of the 1,094 June graduates from the Tamalpais Union High School District this year, 74 per cent entered college this fall, according to a study by the district administration.

The percentage figures ties the record of 1962. The percentage slipped to 73 per cent in 1963.

Of the 807 students attending college, the bulk, 55 per cent, entered the College of Marin. But students ranged as far as England, India and Uganda for their higher education.

Of the students graduating, only three per cent entered the armed forces, and only two per cent entered trade schools. Eleven per cent found jobs and four per cent were listed as "miscellaneous," including housewives and unemployed.

Six per cent failed to respond, but this figure varied widely among high schools, with 11 per cent not responding from Tamalpais High School and only two per cent unaccounted for at Redwood.

Redwood High School produced the highest percentage going to college, 81 per cent, and also had the lowest percentage of that group at the College of Marin, 51 per cent.

Slightly more than 700 students are attending colleges and universities in California, according to the study, with 24 at the University of California at Berkeley, 31 at the Davis campus and 20 at the Santa Barbara campus. Seven students enrolled at Stanford University.

Thirty-two students enrolled at San Francisco State College, and 16 at San Jose State College, with nine going to Sonoma State College.

Furniture Stolen But Delivery Due

A truckload of furniture ordered by Attell's Furniture, 1417 Bridgeway, Sausalito, to arrive in time for Christmas delivery, was hijacked in Los Angeles Monday. But customers will still get their gifts in time, Theodore Attell said today.

The $5,000 shipment, including sectionals, sofas, dining and living room tables, has been replaced by the factory and should arrive in Sausalito Wednesday or Thursday, Attell said.

Mill Valley Weaver Cited; Brought Sweden To Area

Mrs. Valborg Gravander of Mill Valley, better known as Mama Gravander, was decorated last night with the Royal Order of Vasa.

The honor, given by King Gustav VI Adolf, was presented by Per Anger, consul general of Sweden in San Francisco, at a Santa Lucia festival at Mrs. Gravander's home at 325 Tamalpais Avenue.

The decoration is named for King Gustav Vasa, the first king of united Sweden who lived 1523 to 1654 and fought against the Danes for a free Sweden, said Anger.

Anger noted that Mrs. Gravander came to San Francisco over 40 years ago and started introducing Swedish traditions to the area, "introduced Swedish smorgasbord to San Francisco, promoted Swedish folk dances and is a master in Swedish crafts." She recently took part in Sweden Week in San Francisco, weaving on opening day.

About 100 persons, including Mrs. Gravander's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Fields and granddaughter, Elizabeth Fields, of Ashtabula, Ohio, attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Gravander, well known as a weaver and spinner, came to Mill Valley in about 1928, first camping out on her hillside property.

The Santa Lucia festival is celebrated traditionally each year by Swedes on the darkest day of the year, with the meaning that from now on it will be lighter. It is always held Dec. 13 in Sweden.

Woman Hit, Rock-Tossing Man Jailed

William Herbert Decarsky, 49, of San Francisco was jailed last night for allegedly striking a San Rafael woman and throwing rocks at her apartment window.

Decarsky was booked on suspicion of assault and battery. Bailed out for $276, he is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Wednesday afternoon.

San Rafael Police Officer Ronald Averiette said the victim was Charlotte Mitchell Maydole of 155 Canal Street, Apt. 14. Mrs. Maydole said Decarsky had hit her and knocked over a large plant in her living room.

She called her daughter, Margaret Maydole of 55 Fairfax Street, San Rafael, who said she tried to reason with Decarsky without success.

Miss Maydole said she went to talk to him, whereupon Decarsky hit her on the forehead with a pin used to mark off golf cups on the putting lane.

Kentfield Board To Hear School Budget Estimate

The Kentfield School Board tonight will hear a preliminary budget estimate for the 1965-66 school year and recommendations that additional teachers be hired for girls' physical education, fifth grade classes and foreign languages.

The meeting is set for 7:45 p.m. in the library of the Wolfe Grade School.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon is also expected to recommend that the board agree to include funds for two more principals, for the Greenbrae School and for the kindergarten through sixth grades of the Adaline E. Kent School.

The board has also scheduled a discussion of the extension of Wolfe Grade across the campus toward Bon Air Bridge, and of construction planned for next year on all campuses.

Mushroom Eaters In Good Condition

Mrs. Zelindo Pegararo, 45, of 28 Maple Avenue, Fairfax, who, with her husband, Zelindo, was poisoned by mushrooms they picked in Mill Valley Friday, was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Pegararo, 45, was released from the hospital yesterday, a day after he and his wife, Theresa became ill.

Well-Meaning Clerk Disposes Of Treasure

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Macy's is everyone's santa" says the signs in the big Manhattan department store.

And somewhere in the city is a short, dark-haired woman who undoubtedly believes it. Police said he was handed a handsome lizard-skin purse by a helpful Macy's salesgirl and that it contained $40,000 in jewels and $500 in cash.

The purse belonged to another shopper, Mrs. Florence Crossman, according to police. And she realized she had left it at the salesgirl's counter only minutes after walking away without it.

But in that time, in the Christmas shopping crush that filled the big store Saturday night, the clerk, Mrs. Sila Dellangelo, saw the bag, thought it belonged to the other woman and gave it to her.

Today Mrs. Crossman and her husband, a lawyer, said the woman could keep the cash with no strings attached if she would only mail back the gems in care of Mr. Crossman's law office (at 54 E. 57th St.).

The jewelry included a platinum 35-carat diamond ring and a bracelet with 30 uncut diamonds. Mrs. Crossman explained she had it with her because the family was in the process of moving from one apartment to another and she had not been able to get it into a bank vault before closing time Friday.

Mrs. Crossman operates dress shops in Palm Beach, where she is an active social figure, and Miami, Fla., under her maiden name, Florence Lustig.

Unification On Tam's Agenda

Faced with a State Board of Education turn-down on proposed three-way unification in the Tamalpais High School District, members of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization will meet Wednesday to discuss where they should go from here.

A review of the state board action, taken last week, tops the agenda for the committee at its meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday at the curriculum lab, Marin Civic Center.

U.S., Britain Ready To Oust Red Envoys

MOSCOW (UPI) — The United States and British embassies announced today the recall of four Moscow-based military attaches the Soviet Union had accused of spying. Both countries prepared to retaliate against the Russians.

A U. S. embassy spokesman said Washington would take "appropriate action" against three Soviet military attaches there, indicating the retaliatory expulsion of three Soviet officers.

The British government announced it will expel an assistant naval attache at the Soviet embassy in London in retaliation against restrictions placed on the British attache in Moscow.

The Russians accused the three Americans and one British officer of spying during a trans-Siberian train trip last September. Soviet security officials burst into their hotel room, seized cameras, film and notebooks, then allowed them to continue their journey to Japan.

The United States officers involved were Army attache Col. George A. Aubrey of Annapolis, Md., assistant Army attache Lt. Col. Karl R. Liewer of Osmond, Neb., and Maj. James F. Smith of Meers, Okla. They were accompanied by the British Assistant naval attache, Lt. Cmdr. Nigel Laville.

Vets' Income Tax Aid Pledged

James V. Burdick, Marin County veterans service officer, said today that his office in the Civic Center is now prepared to aid war veterans with their income questionnaires mailed with VA checks to all veterans on the pension rolls as of Oct. 25.

Pension recipients are required by law to complete these cards, as a pension is based on the amount of regular income available from other sources.

Recent legislation, Burdick said, has liberalized the income-reporting features so many veterans will need help on the questionnaires.

Injured Attorney Refuses Treatment

Robert W. Plath of 608 Locust Street, Sausalito, was taken to San Rafael General Hospital at 10:30 p.m. yesterday by Sausalito city ambulance for treatment of a facial cut but, refusing treatment, left in a taxi.

Police said they got a call from an unidentified person in a nearby restaurant saying that Plath was injured and needed attention. Officer Ernest Brown went to Plath's home. Plath, an attorney, would not say how he received the injury, said police.

Union Delays Rails Tieup Until 1965

CHICAGO (AP) — Thre shop craft unions made known today there will not be any nationwide railroad strike until after Jan. 1.

Alex Elson, lawyer for the Machinists, Electric Workers and Sheet Metal Workers unions, made the announcement in U.S. District Court.

Elson told Judge Joseph Sam Perry he had been authorized to state there "will not be a strike until after the first of the year."

The unions last week had set a strike for 6 a.m. Tuesday that would have idled more than 90 per cent of the railroad traffic at a time pre-Christmas travel, mail and merchandise shipments are at a peak.

The rail lines hurried into court and sought a temporary order and an injunction to halt the walkout. Lawyers for the carriers had argued that a work stoppage would cost the railroads more than $26 million a day.

Brothers Tom, 12, and Bruce Turner, 11, generally dress alike for school, even though not twins. But classmates thought they were fooling last week when both turned up with broken arms in slings. It was for real though—Tom's arm was broken in a football game; Bruce's the next day in a bike tumble. (AP Wirephoto)

Santa Claus Is On His Way To Indianola, Mississippi

The Santa Claus of Indianola, Miss., left Marin early this morning, carrying more than a thousand pounds of presents and toys for the children of his home town.

Freedom Fighter Willie L. Clay, who left Indianola at the end of the summer to come to Marin with Fred B. Winn of Sausalito was returning with gifts from people and organizations who responded to his idea for Christmas in Indianola.

Clay first mentioned the idea at a public meeting several weeks ago, and he's been collecting donations ever since.

His drive for presents ended Saturday night with a sendoff party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Meredith in Ross, where he's been staying. The guests brought more presents and gasoline money for the trip.

Early this morning Clay and another Mississippian studying in California, John Quinn, headed south, pulling a trailer-load of gifts.

Robert Keskula, 821 Estancia Way, Santa Venetia, told deputies the tools and the two tool boxes were taken from his pick-up truck parked at the residence last week.

Walter Glaser, 280 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley, told officers the outboard was taken off a 37-foot sailboat moored near Gate 5 in the Sausalito area over the past two weeks. The report was made yesterday.

PACOIMA (AP) — A freight train engineer slammed on his brakes, then watched horrified his slowing locomotive rolled over and killed an 8-year-old girl running on the track.

The child, Penny Jo Minter of Pacoima, apparently panicked as the train approached and veered directly into its path, police said.

Charges Dropped Against Last Of 21 In Rights Case

SHREVEPORT, La., (UPI) — The U. S. Justice Department today dropped charges against Horace Doyle Barnette, the last of 21 men still charged in connection with the death of three civil rights workers in Mississippi this year.

Charges against the other 20 were dropped last week. A U. S. commissioner in Meridian, Miss., declared an alleged confession by Barnette inadmissable as hearsay—second hand, and dropped charges against 19 of the defendants.

Charges against another man were dropped at Gulfport, Miss., later in the week.

A Justice Department spokesman said today charges against Barnette, the only one of the 21 arrested outside of Mississippi, were dropped because they wanted to "clean up" all the case at the same time and put them to a federal grand jury.

Barnette was one of the 10 defendants charged with conspiring to intercept, assault and kill the three civil rights workers.

His attorney said as far as he knew, Barnette had made no statement to FBI agents who arrested him in Shreveport two weeks ago.

Teeners Thrown Out Of Auto

Two teen-agers were thrown from a spinning car but only slightly injured in a single-car accident at 10:10 p.m. yesterday on the Nicasio-San Geronimo Road about four miles north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The car, driven by Gerald Meier, 18, of 27 Claus Drive, Fairfax, missed a curve, hit a soft shoulder, sheared off a telephone pole, spunu around and crossed a six-foot ditch backwards before coming to a stop, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Meier was treated for multiple scrapes and bruises at Marin General Hospital and sent home. His passenger, Pamela Kenny, 16, of Bolinas Road, Fairfax, was treated for a cut forehead and sent home.

BEST GIFT OF ALL

Give Someone Christmas Job

The best Christmas present you can give an unemployed person is a job.

Operating on this theory, the Marin County Department of Public Social Services in seeking "Santa Clauses" who need helpers.

There are about 150 to 200 persons receiving county aid who are willing and able to work, reports Roy Milner, work training coordinator.

"We feel they need something to give them independence, something more than a basket of food or used toys for Christmas," Milner said.

If someone can "give a job for Christmas," it will benefit both the recipient and the community, Milner pointed out

Men and women ranging from recent high school graduates to persons approaching their sixties are availible for work. Milner dipped into his files and came up with a sampling of of those who need jobs.

There's a 43-year-old father of five in West Marin who has 14 years of experience as a stockman and supply assistant in warehouses. After working for the federal government in Guam for 13 years, he returned to the United States and could find only a laborer's job. Then that too was unavailable.

A 34-year-old former stock broker with a strong educational background, who suffered financial reserses while self-employed, needs a steady income to support his wife and four children.

An attractive 18-year-old girl, who has been working on county work projects to earn her aid, would like to obtain a clerical job, but lacks work experience. She is an unwed mother with a child to support.

There is a 50-year-old housekeeper, now earning $25 a week, who has 10 years experience in domestic work. She would like to undertake child care or light housekeeping at a better salary.

A 30-year-old woman with two children, who has been unemployed since last year, has experience as a bank teller and as a staff assistant in a department store. She quit work to get married and then her husband deserted her, and she wants to return to work.

One 30-year-old man with a varied background in pre-law, art school and business school, who has been unemployed since January, 1963, would like to find some work.

A 39-year-old illiterate man who formerly worked for the San Rafael Street department and also as a painter and gardener would like work as a painter, but is willing to tackle any job except one involving heavy lifting, because he was once paralysized from the waist down. He is now on a county work project and has three children to support.

On the younger side, there is a 17-year-old high school graduate, whose family is receiving aid and who lacks work experience. would like to be a psychiatric technician or enter hospital work.

A 58-year-old laborer with a fourth grade education, now on a county work project, is seeking work as a laborer or groundsman. He has a reputation as a good worker, but slow, said Milner.

A 21-year-old girl who graduated from high school and recieved College of Marin training as a nurse's aide has been unemployed since August. She has two children to support and would like a clerical job.

"There is no obstacle to employment of any of this group and we have others too," said Milner.

Anyone who has a job available is urged to notify Milner at the office at the Department of Public Social Services at the Marin Civic Center.

Rusk Confers Overtime With French Leader

PARIS (UPI)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk conferred with President Charles de Gaulle today on a wide range of issues including an allied Multilateral Nuclear Force (MLF) which the French leader opposes.

The talk lasted 1½ hours—a half-hour longer than scheduled.

U.S. officials said Rusk assured de Gaulle that the Uited States is not seeking to launch an offensive against France over MLF or to isolate it from its allies.

They said the assurance was one of the main purposes of Rusk's visit.

"We had a very friendly and frank discussion," Rusk said. "This is the type of meeting that is extremely helpful among allies."

Rusk's talk with de Gaulle had more than usual significance because the present NATO council session is overshadowed by the dispute inside the alliance over allied nuclear strategy.

U.C. Demonstrators Legal Action Delayed

BERKELEY (AP) — Legal action against more than 700 demonstrators, arrested during a campus revolt at the University of California, was put off today until after the Board of Regents meets Friday for a decision on the protested rules.

Their lawyers waived arraignment and agreed with a municipal judge in a brief proceeding at a Berkeley community theater to begin the entering of pleas Jan. 5. The demonstrators are charged variously with trespassing, refusal to disperse and resisting arrest during a Dec. 3 sit-in at Sproul Hall.

The Regents are to meet Friday at Los Angeles and will take up a faculty proposal: Lift all restrictions on campus advocacy of such matters as civil rights; switch disciplinary control from the administration to the faculty.

Lawyers, newsmen and photographers outnumbered the arrested demonstrators present for the mass arraignment in a community theater.

Municipal Judge Rupert Crittenden said he counted 784 cases in all. A group of lawyers represented 714.

Judge Crittenden said the cases would be taken up, starting Jan. 5 in groups of 50 at 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. each day until all cases have been handled.

The dispute is over student demands for more freedom on campus to advocate off-campus social and political activities without fear of university discipline. University regulations now permit advocacy at certain campus points, but call for university discipline of students convicted for off-campus actions such as demonstrations in which civil disobedience techniques are used.

Demonstrators included 590 students, about 50 teaching assistants and other university employes and about 130 non-students, including some wives of students.

They met last night in the Berekeley Community Theater, scene of today's hearing, to map legal strategy with their 60 attorneys. The university denied them permission to meet on campus in a counsel-client relationship, but said they could use a university building for hearing of an explanation of legal principles and procedures relevant to their cases.

Reluctant Boy Gets Booked

A 17-year-old Kentfield boy was charged with refusal to disperse when ordered to by a police officer and with trespassing during a dance at the Belvedere Community Hall Friday night.

Police officer William Fraass reported he told four youths to leave the dance. They complied, but the Kentfield boy, after being told to leave three times, attempted to return, police said.

The dance sponsored by the Belvedere Recreation Commission was open only to Belvedere youths and their guests.

More Recreation Sought By Twin City Commission

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission has decided to provide a strong show of public sentiment in favor of recreation at the Dec. 21 Corte Madera Town Council meeting in an attempt to continue the commission's program beyond June 30.

The commissioners, in a special meeting Friday, voted to send a letter to parents of all children who have participated in the program since last July, asking that they appear at the council meeting to support the present program.

In addition, a petition will be circulated throughout the town, asking for names of those in support.

At the last meeting of the town council, a proposal for a budget for the last half of 1965 was defeated by a 2-2 vote.

Peron Bows To Ban On Politics

MADRID (UPI)—Exiled former Argentine dictator Juan D. Peron has accepted a Spanish government ultimatum to end his political activities while living in this countyr, highly reliable sources said today.

The sources said he agreed to give up all political activities aimed at returning to power in Argentina in exchange for the government's permission for him to continue his exile here.

But Peron did not renounce his ultimate goal of returning to Argentina, the sources said.

Adjustments Board Member Resigning

Norman Eaton, chairman of the Corte Madera Planning Commission, has turned in his resignation from the town's board of adjustments.

The appointment of a new member of the three-man hearing board will probably be made during tonight's planning commission session.

The meeting is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall. The commission will also consider revisions in the zoning ordinance on uses in commercial districts and of the sign ordinance.

Hungary Imprisons Capitalist Plotters

The Hungary supreme court found the defendants guilty last week of perpetrating a conspiracy against the state and establishing an illegal political party.

New State Boat Law Due Jan. 1

Marin County boat owners will be assured greater protection against thefts when a new state law takes effect Jan. 1.

The law, passed by the 1963 legislature and enforced by the Small Craft Harbors Commission, requires all boat owners to have proof of ownership, a certificate of registration and an identifying hull number.

Until now, state officials say, there has been no assurance that someone could not steal a boat and re-register it as though he were its true owner.

Boat builders, most of whom already put hull numbers on their products, will be asked to do so on all boats sold in California. The small craft harbors division will assign numbers to those boats which have none.

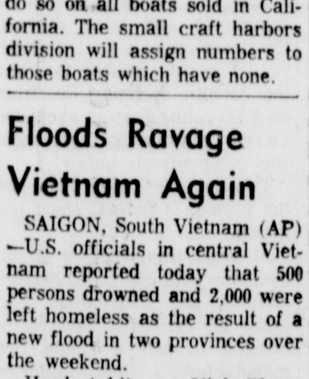

Floods Ravage Vietnam Again

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) —U.S. officials in central Vietnam reported today that 500 persons drowned and 2,000 were left homeless as the result of a new flood in two provinces over the weekend.

Auto Tires Out In Many Colors

By JAMES STICKFORD

DETROIT (UPI) — Tires have blossomed in a myriad of colors for the 1965 model year.

In the past, new car buyers had only two choices in selection of tires—black or white. But now tires are being highlighted with bright colors such as red, orange and gold.

Thet rend toward distinctive tires gained a start last year when Pontiac put red-striped tires on its high performance Tempest GTO. And even the year before that, Buick put a special whitewall tire on its new Riviera.

During the 1965 model run, at least seven new models feature special tires. And before the end of the model run, tiremakers believe several other lines may have their own distinctive patterns.

At least four of the selections offer colored tires.

Pontiac's GTO continues with its red band and Ford has gone one better with the Mustang performance model and offers an optional tire featuring two red stripes. Ford also offers an optional colored tire for the Thunderbird. That one has a thin band of white and a single band of orange separated by a black stripe.

Chevrolet offers a tire marked with a single band of gold for the Corvette. The gold tire for the Corvette and the twin-striped Mustang tire are for high performance models.

Cadillac, Imperial and Riviera all have modified the whitewall on their new cars. Cadillac and Riviera have sandwiched a band almost as wide as the current whitewall between two thin white bands. Imperial went in the opposite direction and features a wide band on each side of a narrower one.

To the tiremakers the trend presents problems. It means they have to make more and more kinds of tires and stock them in their stores.

"It's a mixed blessing," Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. vice president John C. Wright Jr. said. "It does mean that tires are gaining recognition as an integral part of automotive design—in an esthetic sense, not just as functional equipment.

"But on the other hand, these various sidewall colors and designs add complexities to our production and distribution operations. Goodyear currently is supplying more than 20 types and sizes of tires for 1965 cars."

Wright said the tire companies that supply tires as original equipment to the auto industry also will make the special tires available through their retail outlets.

He said that in past year, the tire industry attempted to market colored sidewall tires in the replacement market, but the moves failed for a variety of reasons.

For one thing, he said, auto companies were not offering such tires as original or optional equipment. For another, colors available were limited and a match with car colors was difficult.

Wright declined to predict whether automakers will increase their use of color on tire sidewalls. "That's up to them, and ultimately, the consumer. But whether by color or other means, tires will continue to be an over-all auto design factor. Other changes are sure to come."

UNTEACHABLE

Business Study 'Not Scientific'

NEW YORK (UPI) — William Black, chairman of the board of the Chock Full O' Nuts restaurant chain, is not a tight man with a dollar, just particular.

Four years ago he donated 5 million dollars to Columbia University for a medical research building. Yesterday he turned down a request for $20 from the university's graduate school of business, of which he is an alumnus.

In a letter Black said: "I am of the opinion that, unlike engineering, medicine, etc., the subject of business is not scientific enough to be taught."

He said he didn't think a young man could be taught to "make decisions" and concluded:

INCOME TAX FACTS

Some Real Money Savers Explained

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, C.P.A.

If you made over $3,000 more in 1964 than you made in the average of the last four years, don't overlook the new income averaging provisions. They are a real money saver.

Long-term capital gains, investment income from property recently received through gift or inheritance, gambling gains and premature distributions from your own pension plan does not qualify for income averaging. All other taxable income does.

Wikel

You have to find the average taxable income for 1960, 1961, 1962, and 1963. Add the taxable income for these years together. Divide by four. This may or may not be your average taxable income under the very complex rules, but it will do to determine if you may be eligible for averaging.

Multiply the above figure by 133⅓ per cent. This is four times one third and is the non-averageable income. Subtract this figure from your 1964 taxable income.

If the remainder is more than $3,000 you may be eligible for income averaging.

This is a very complex set of rules, therefore you should consult your tax advisor early or purchase the book "Your Federal Income Tax—1965 Edition" for 50 cents from the District Director of Internal Revenue or from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C.

New Yorkers Top Nation's Production

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York led all states in total manufacturing activity in 1963, the Commerce Department said in its 1963 census of manufactures, released yesterday.

California had the greatest increase in dollar value of manufactures, Florida led in percentage increase among the larger industrial states and Hawaii led the less industrialized states.

New York, with a "value added by manufacturing" of 19 billion dollars, continued to hold its position as the leading industrial state although its gain in "value added" of 24 per cent lagged behind the U. S. average.

"Value added" is the difference between the total value of products shipped and the cost of materials.

California, the second-ranking state with a "value added" of 17 billion dollars, showed the greatest dollar value increase of 5.4 billion dollars, an increase of 45 per cent over 1955, the year the last census of manufactures was taken.

Trading Up But Market Shuts Lower

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today with a pickup in trading.

The list was higher at the start, turned mixed, and headed lower late in the day.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.2 million shares compared with 4.52 million Friday.

Gains and losses of key stocks went from fractions to around a point generally.

Among wider movers, Comsat spurted about 3 points, making a new high in very active dealings. U.S. Smelting and American-South African Investment gained more than 2.

Among other golds, Homestake rose more than a point and McIntyre Porcupine a fraction.

General Motors, up more than a point, was outstanding in an otherwise soft auto group. Slight lossesb were taken by Ford, Studebaker and American Motors. Chrysler was unchanged.

Lukens Steel, up about 2, was a big gainer among steels which turned irregularly lower following a small early rise.

DuPont and Woolworth were off about a point, Xerox more than that. Motorola slipped more than a point despite its higher cash dividend and plans for a 50 per cent stock dividend.

Gains of a point or so were made by Eastern Gas & Fuel, Continental Oil, Consolidated Cigar, ABC-Paramount, Arlan's Department Stores, Celanese, Sinclair Oil and Interstate Department Stores.

Down a point or more were Beckman Instruments, Texas Gulf Sulphur, American Export Lines and Air Control. Bucyrus-Erie slipped nearly 2.

Prices were generally higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Big Steel, Union Warming Up For Contract Parley

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Negotiators for the steel industry and the United Steelworkers of America (USW) held their final separate warmup sessions today on the eve of the start tomorrow of collective bargaining for a new wage contract.

USW president David J. McDonald and U.S. Steel Corp.'s R. Conrad Cooper, chief spokesman for the industry in the contract talks, were to issue a joint statement today.

Tomorrow units representing each of the 11 major basic steel producing companies meet with their union counterparts. The 11 major producers belong to the steel coordinating committee. Kaiser Steel, also a major producer, withdrew from this committee after a 116-day strike in 1959 and now bargains as an independent.

Negotiations On

PALO ALTO (AP) — Varian Associates said today it is negotiating to acquire Mikros, Inc., a Portland, Ore. firm specializing in vacuum and electron microscope fields.

New owner of Mam'sell Beauty Bazaar (formerly Mam'selle Stylists), Mrs. Helen Adams had Oakland window decorator Bert Arthur dress up a window winter scene that just about erases all memory of shattered glass.

Mrs. Adams was formerly with Maxine's in Santa Venetia; before that had her own salon in Illinois for three years. She specializes in permanents and tinting.

ABRAHAM B. SELBY of San Rafael has been elected to membership in the San Francisco chapter of the Administrative Society. He is office manager of Fireman's Fund American Insurance Co., San Francisco.

Supreme Court To Hear Appeal On Fair Trade

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court has agreed to settle a dispute between the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the nation's oil and tire companies that could have impact on corner filling station prices throughout the country.

The court put on its docket for arguments and later decision this term appeals by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., and the Atlantic Refining Co. from an FTC ruling that an exclusive sales commission agreement was competitively unfair.

Two similar cases also are the subject of federal court litigation.

At issue was whether an oil company with controlled service stations and distributors can make an exclusive sales commission to sell a single tire manufacturer's tires, batteries and accessories.

Turkey Market Look Good

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — By year's end, California turkey growers expect to market 15 million of the birds, with a cash value of about 70 million dollars.

If this is done, California will maintain its record as the No. 1 turkey producing state.

That summary was made today in a survey by the California Bankers' Association.

At Thanksgiving, turkeys were in good demand with retail prices ranging from 33 to 39 cents a pound. The survey said this level is expected to hold for Christmas and New Year's dinners.

The report said Californians consume 30 per cent more turkey per capita than the national average.

49ers: We Couldn't Get Started

Another Last Place Finish For S. F. '11'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The season was over and San Francisco 49er quarterback John Brodie summed up the situation briskly:

"We just couldn't get going."

While Brodie referred to the 49ers' latest and last battle of the season—a 24-7 loss to the Detroit Lions yesterday in the motor city—the description fit the entire 1964 campaign.

For the second year in a row, the 49ers finished in last place in the seven-team Western Conference of the National Football League.

An optimist would say they won twice as many games as last year—four this season and two in 1963.

Coach Jack Christiansen, told by the front office he will be at the 49er helm for a number of years to come, refused to grumble about the season.

He started talking about his club's first game of the year—a pre-season 26-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns, who went on to win the NFL's Eastern Conference title.

"We had high hopes," Christiansen replied.

But that was the last 49er victory in five warmup games. Then followed a season which began and ended with a loss to Detroit. Three long touchdown plays by the Lions beat the 49ers Sunday.

Quarterback Milt Plum passed to Jim Gibbons for a 64-yard touchdown play early in the first quarter, and the same combination clicked again on an 82-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter.

Wayne Walker booted a 27-yard field goal in the second quarter for Detroit, followed less than two minutes later by a 68-yard punt return by Tom Watkins for another Lion touchdown.

Brodie passed 13 yards to Dave Parks on the last play of the third quarter for San Francisco's only touchdown.

Marin Tars Win 'Golden' Tourney

JAY JOHNSON
Most valuable

BRAD BUSCH
All-tourney

With one tournament championship under their belts, the College of Marin basketballers will be trying for their second title this week.

Marin ran off with the honors in the Golden Valley Conference Tournament Saturday and hope to duplicate the feat this week in the Coast Conference Tournament in Vallejo. That tourney will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The Tars from Marin beat Shasta 70-63 in the championship game of the GVC tourney Saturday. Earlier in the day they had topped Santa Rosa 76-73 in the semi-finals. The road to victory started Friday when the Mariners nipped American River Junior College 83-81 in overtime.

Guards Jay Johnson and Brad Busch were the stars for Marin, each being named to the all-tourney team. Johnson, scoring a total of 65 points in the tourney, was voted the tournament's most valuable player. Busch scored 60 points. But coach Cal Riemcke called it a team victory.

"Everybody did a good job. They all made a contribution to the team," said Riemcke. Asked what he thought were the key factors to the success, Riemcke said, "No. 1 was our overall team spirit, the kids played together as a team. No. 2 was our bench strength."

In the championship game, Marin led 37-36 over Shasta at the halfway mark. The Tars led throughout the second half, but the Knights pulled to within one point with about five minutes left in the game. So Marin, using ball control, started playing a deliberate game. Then Johnson made a field goal and Busch scored a bucket and a pair of free throws to ice the game.

Johnson led the scoring in that game with 23 points. Other Marin boys to hit the scoring column were Busch with 17, Bill Brody 12, Fred Arnold 9, Jim Halm 8 and Pete Coy 1. Shasta's Russ Osborne led the Knights' scoring with 19 points.

In the semi-final game against Santa Rosa, the story was about the same. Marin led 36-34 at intermission and then led throughout the second half, finally ending the game with a stall.

Johnson again led the scoring attack for Marin in the semi-final contest, pushing through 19 points. Busch had 17, Rod Monti had 13, Arnold 11, Brody 10 and Halm 6. Tom Stewart led the scoring for the Bear Cubs with 26 points.

Other members of the all tourney team were Santa Rosa's Stewart, a formward; Shasta's Osborne at the center spot, and Siskiyou guard Gene Landoe and Sierra forward Ralph Villaneuva.

Riemcke praised the Marin starting five for a good showing in all departments. Busch and Johnson scored big and played good floor games; Halm did a good defensive job on two all-tourney players, Steward and Osborne; Arnold did a good job rebounding, and Brody played a steady game with all-around performance.

With the three wins on the Santa Rosa courts, it makes in six years since Marin has lost there. Last time Marin lost in Santa Rosa was back in the 1958-59 season. Marin's 1964-65 record now is 5-2.

"With the poise and experience we gained in this tourney we hope to do a good job in the Coast Conference Tournament," said Riemcke. "The Coast Conference is about the same strength as the Golden Valley so we should have a good chance of winning."

The coast tourney will be held in the Vallejo High School gymnasium. Marin will face Monterey Peninsula College in its opener Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

Rumor 49ers To Trade Brodie; Icy Fingers In Futility Bowl

Randol

They clamped the lid on the 1964 pro season yesterday, and about time. It may be pleasant to hit yourself on the head with a hammer because it feels so good when you stop, but there is such a thing as going too far.

There were Futility Bowls played all over the league yesterday. With the championships of both divisions already settled, the only obligation left to the fans was to play out the string and head for home.

The San Francisco 49ers ended their season as they began it, losing to the Detroit Lions. This time it was 24 to 7. The Lions roared throughout the first half and the Niners rolled over and played dead. And, after a few convulsive kicks in the second half they were dead for real.

THERE HAVE been rumors that quarterback John Brodie would be traded away this winter. For a while in the first half yesterday it looked as if the Niner ends and flankers were out to make the trade look good. Brodie was laying his throws right in the bread basket but most were handled as if the bread had just come from a red hot oven.

You can blame it on icy fingers if you want, but part of the fielding errors were purely and simply caused by lack of desire and indifference. The same icy fingers were doing a good job in the second stanza, but it was another case of too little too late.

EVEN THE usually reliable Niner defense had some lapses in the deep secondary, and it cost them. Could be this was just a polite way of telling the offensive unit that they didn't appreciate working overtime. It was late in the second quarter before Brodie and Co. engineered a first down.

No need for further rehashing of the leftover hash. The season is over. The Niners have doubled their win output over last year and still find themselves at the bottom of the heap. Even another doubling of wins next year would not bring a title.

IN SPITE of some glowing predictions as to the future strength of the 49ers, it is time for an agonizing reappraisal of the stock on hand. Some heads will fall before the start of next season. Some should have fallen before this season.

The year 1965 will be the year of decision for San Francisco. We'll discuss some factors in our next.

Drake Profs Vs. Varsity Tomorrow In Annual Game

Faculty basketball players at Sir Francis Drake High School will take on the Pirates varsity team in their annual game tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in the Drake gym.

The faculty team will feature returning stars such as Vincent Boyle, Chester Carlisle, Richard DeConti, Larry Dickey, Robert Franceschini, Robert Johnson, Albert Lavin, Roger Lim, Frank Mulholland, Ted Nagel and Verle Sorgen. Three new teachers at Drake on the team are Mahlon Conley, Jack Hayes and Tom McEntee.

Coaching the team will be Principal Harold Allison who led last year's faculty to a 46-30 triumph over the younger cagers.

"Naturally we plan to win again, partly because of more experience and advantage of height," said Allison. "And because of such good coaching," he joked.

JOEY RISKS TITLE

Champ Giardello Favored Over 'Hurricane' Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Middleweight champion Joey Giardello gambles on his ability to lure paying customers tonight when he takes on dangerous Rubin (Hurricane) Carter in a 15-round title fight at Convention Hall.

The 34-year-old champion from nearby Cherry Hill, N.J., is the 7-5 betting choice over the second-ranking contender from Paterson, N.J. Starting time is 10 p.m., EST.

There will be no national television. It will be seen on home televsion or in theaters and arenas in several cities as the result of some late sales.

But if Joey is to take home a fat purse it will have to be mainly on his gate-pulling attraction in his home town area.

Promoter Jimmy Riggio optimistically forecasts a crowd of 9,000 or 10,000 and a gross gate of $150,000. If he takes in from $50,000 upwards it will prove boxing isn't dead yet.

Giardello is risking his crown for the first time and collecting 60 per cent of the gross gate. In the days of weekly network television of fights, a middleweight champion's defense was worth from $50,000 to $150,000.

Giardello won the 160-pound division title with an upset 15-round decision over Nigeria's Dick Tiger at Atlantic City, N.J., Dec. 7, 1963. He has had only two non-title fights since, Rivero twice.

He has won seven straight over a 25-month span, the most victories he has strung together since 1958.

A veteran of 16 years of pro battling, Giardello has a 95-22-11 won-lost-draw record, including 32 knockouts. He has been stopped only three times, the last by Spider Webb in the seventh round six years ago. All three were technical knockouts.

Carter, who started boxing in the Army, has a 20-4 record in three years of pro battling. He has scored 13 knockouts and been stopped once — by Joe Gonzalez in six last year.

An aggressive fighter who wades right in, Carter figures to be soundly outboxed by the clever, experienced, strong-jawed champion unless he lands his jolting left hook early. All of his knockouts have been scored in five rounds or less.

The Hurricane's major achievements have been first round knockouts of Florentino Fernandez in 1962 and welterweight champion Emile Griffith in a non-title fight a year ago.

The jury still is out on Carter's ability to take a real poke on the jaw. Gonzalez doesn't rate in the punching league and light-hitting Gomeo Brennan shook him all over with a right.

Scoring will be by the five point system. The winner of each round gets five points, the loser four or less. The eight count will be mandatory for knockdowns, a ruling that seems to benefit the champion. a round loses on a technical knockout.

NAVY FOOTBALL COACH

Hardin's Future Cloudy

ANNAPOLIS, Md. AP) — Coach Wayne ardin's football future at Navy may be decided today at a meeting of the athletic control board.

There has been doubt about the status of the 37-year-old Hardin since Friday, when reports started circulating that he had already been fired or had resigned.

The board, composed of high-ranking naval officers, annually acts on coaches' contracts. The contracts are subject to renegotiation each year, although they may not have expired.

In the case of Hardin, he has four years to go on a five-year pact. It reportedly pays him $18,000 a year.

The Associated Press has learned reliably that Hardin was told last Monday that he would be fired and that his administrative assistant, Doug Scovil, would succeed him.

Hardin and Capt. William S. Busik, director of athletics, held a press conference Saturday and denied the reports that the coach had been fired or had resigned. They agreed that Hardin's future at Navy was still a matter of negotiation.

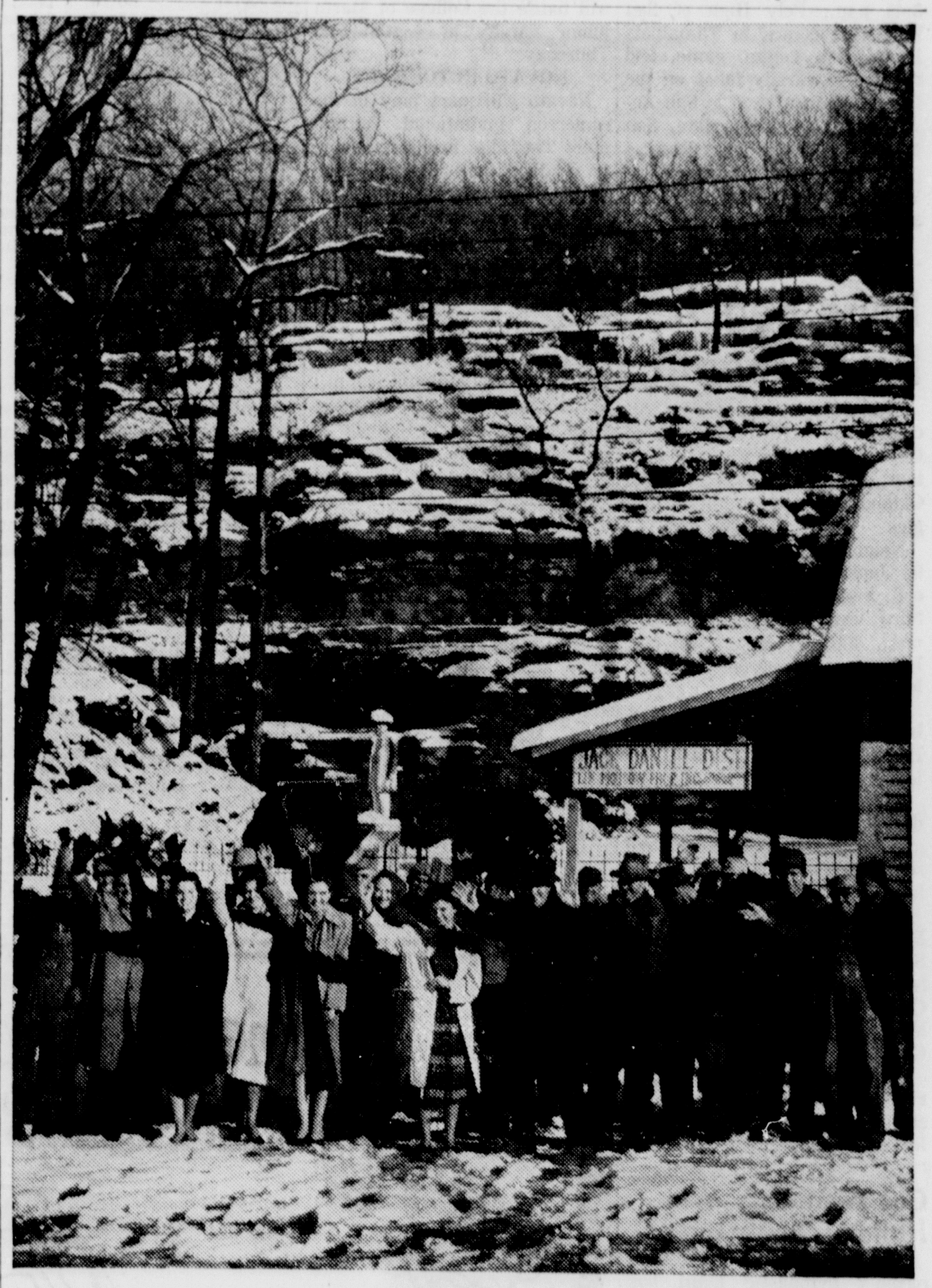

Busik said he hoped to have a recommendation on Hardin's contract ready to present to the board today.

Questions not answered today are expected to be cleared up before Hardin leaves Thursday to be one of the coaches in the North-South College All-Star game in Miami.

The ideal test — Passing vs. Rushing.

But it's not that simple. Despite the fact that Unitas and Brown are the acknowledged leaders in their respective phases of the game each team has multiple offensive weapons and proved it in final regular seasons games.

The Browns clinched their first Eastern Division title since 1957 by crushing the New York Giants 52-20 as Frank Ryan fired five touchdown passes. Lenny Moore and Ray Berry played key roles for the Western Division champion Colts yesterday, setting records in a 45-17 romp over Washington.

Taking the three standouts from each team in those games reveals some intriguing matchups for the championship ame at Cleveland, Dec. 27.

PASSING

Unitas — Passed for two touchdowns and wound up the season with 158 completions, a 51 per cent accuracy mark 2,827 yards gained and 19 TDs. He had six passes intercepted.

Ryan — Finished the season with 174 completions, a 52 per cent mark, 2,404 yards and 25 TDs. He had 19 passes stolen.

RUSHING

Moore — Scored two touchdowns and brought his total to 20, breaking the record set by Jim Taylor of Green Bay in 1962. Gained 584 yards during the season for a 3.7 average.

Brown — Scored one touchdown for 105 during his career, tying the record held by Green Bay's Don Hutson. Gained 1,446 yards during the season for a 5.2 average.

RECEIVING

Berry — Caught five passes for a career total of 506 — three more than the record held by Bill Howton of Green Bay and Dallas. Has caught 43 passes this year for 663 yards and six TDs.

Paul Warfield — Caught five passes for total of 52 and 920 yards, scoring once for a total of nine touchdowns. Warfield is the first Brown since Mac Speedie in 1952 to catch more than 50 passes.

In addition, the teams produced two of the league's top three point scorers with More winning the title with 120 points to 115 for Cleveland's Lou Groza and Jim Bakken of St. Louis.

Independent-Journal Sports

18 Mon., Dec. 14, 1964

The Cardinals, who had a shot at the Eastern title until the Browns whipped New York, edged Philadelphia 36-34 on Bakken's fifth field goal — a 19-yarder with 22 seconds remaining. St. Louis will meet Green Bay in the Playoff Bowl at Miami, Fla., Jan. 3.

The Packers tied Los Angeles 24-24 and deadlocked Minnesota for second place in the West but won the Playoff Bowl berth because they outscored the Vikings in their two meetings this season. The Vikings finished out their season with a 41-14 thumping of Chicago.

Elsewhere, Detroit defeated San Francisco 24-7 and Dallas Edged Pittsburgh 17-14.

In the American League, Buffalo downed Denver 30-19, Kansas City belted San Diego 49-6 and Houston walloped New York 33-17.

Ryan was the big man for the Browns, completing 12 of 13 passes for 202 yards and those five touchdowns while scoring once himself on a 12-yard run. The touchdown put the Browns ahead to stay 10-7 and started a streak in which Cleveland scored six consecutive times.

Ryan scored after the Giants had moved ahead on a touchdown pass by Y.A. Tittle — who set a NFL record by playing in his 176th game but connected for only one score in what may have been his farewell.

The Colts were locked in a 10-10 tie with the Redskins at the half but moved ahead in the third quarter on Jerry Hill's seven-yard touchdown run before Unitas hit for a touchdown pass and Moore plunged short yardage for his two touchdowns to put it out of reach.

TIES RECORD

Bakken tied an NFL record with his five field goals, the last one coming after he missed a 53-yarder with less than two minutes remaining. That seemed to have clinched it for the Eagles but Don Brumm recovered an Ollie Matson fumble to set up Bakken's game-winner and the Cardinals' victory.

The two teams scored 47 points in the second period — an NFL record.

Bart Starr of the Packers also broke a league record on the final day of the season, completing 26 passes without an interception for a string of 225 in a row without a steal. The old record of 208 was set by Milt Plum in 1959-60.

Starr hit Boyd Dowler with a five-yard touchdown pass to start a 4-point fourth quarter against the Rams, then Jim Taylor got the tie with a one-yard plunge. The big play for Los Angeles was a 95-yard pass from Bill Munson to Bucky Pope.

Bill Brown scored three touchdowns as the Vikings completed the Bears' disastrous season, Plum connected with Jim Gibbons on 64 and 82 yard scoring plays in the Lions' victory over the 49ers and Perry Lee Dunn bolted three yards for the Cowboys' clinching touchdown against the Steelers.

PASADENA (AP) — This was celebration day for Long Beach City College and its football Vikings, and a long journey back to Oklahoma for the Cameron Aggies.

Neighboring Long Beach kept its Junior Rose Bowl gme record intact with the Vikings' third victory, 28-6, over Cameron, and the Aggies are now 1-2 in the post-season junior college classic.

It was Motley's 43-yard touchdown run that broke open the game in the fourth quarter and sent Long Beach into a 21-6 lead.

Quarterback Greg Barton and Motley's running mate, Elwood Stewart, were the stars on offense, while quarterback Tom Croft and his best back, Vernon Moore, were outstanding for Cameron.

Long Beach showed it could run and pass. Cameron had a strong ground game but very little power in the air.

LONDON (AP) — The American sloop Constellation, winner of the America's Cup earlier this year, has been awarded the Lloyd's Register of Shipping yacht trophy for 1964.

It is the first time the trophy has gone to an American-built craft.

The award is made annually to a yacht—sail or powered—which is considered outstanding in design, construction, materials and equipment. The Constellation won from an entry of 115 yachts.

FLORISTS FORFEIT

Semi-Pro League Resumes Action

The seven-week layoff because of rain hurt the Maggi's Florist team of the Marin County Semi-Pro Winter Baseball League as the San Anselmo team couldn't field enough players yesterday and forfeited to the Indian Valley Lumber team.

It was the first loss for the flowermen who were 2-0 before the game. Players probably figured it would rain so decided not to make the trip to San Anselmo's Memorial Park. The Maggi's team now is in second place behind Billings-Hutchison (3-0) which was idle yesterday.

In games that were played yesterday, the Pacifica Lions beat the Tiburon Sox 8-2 at San Anselmo, and the Mill Valley Merchants and DeMaestri's Garage played to an 11-inning tie, 6-6, at Mill Valley.

Pacifica righthander Bud Dawson silenced the Tiburon bats as he scattered only four hits. Tiburon used three pitchers, with starter Skip Rush being charged with the loss. Frank Smith and Rich Barry relieved. Leading the Lions hitters were Frank Scott and Art Belli, each with a pair of safeties. Pacifica totaled nine hits.

In the tied game, the hitting was a lopsided affair, but runs, not hits, win games. Mill Valley outhit the Garagemen 14-6, but had the winning run cut down at the plate twice in their half of the 11th inning. The game was halted because of darkness.

Two righthanders went all the way, Keith Fraser for the Merchants and Laddie Richardson for Fairfax. Tom Underwood had two doubles and a single and Rich Dittle had three singles to pace the Mill Valley attack. John Odetto had two singles for Fairfax. Fairfax, while tying in two games, has yet to win a league game.

SECRET OF USING THE WEDGE—THE "GET-HOME" SHOT—IS TO FLOW INTO THE SHOT. THE LEFT FOOT REMAINS FLAT ON THE GROUND THROUGHOUT, SUPPORTING MOST OF THE WEIGHT AHEAD OF THE BALL. USF Shows Best Potential Since 1956

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of San Francisco Dons are off and running to what could be their best season since the national championships of 1955 and 1956.

In other action, Southern California bowed 78-69 to North Carolina State, UCLA downed Oklahoma State 68-52, Seattle defeated UC Santa Barbara 75-55, Utah trounced St. Mary's 101-67, San Jose State beat Arizona 66-59, and Washington edged Washington State 67-66 in a non-conference clash.

In the Knights of Columbus Tournament at Portland, host Portland U. won the championship by downing Gonzaga 80-69 in overtime. Pepperdine took third place with a 62-46 victory over Redlands.

For a while, it appeared as if USF would be upset. California hit 10 straight field goals in the early going and took a 27-13 lead. But the Dons roared back behind the rebounding and shooting of center Ollie Johnson who scored 21 points.

Dan Wolthers kept the Bears in the game during the second half as USF took command by constantly blockingshots and stealing the ball. Wolthers scored 19 of his 28 points in the second half.

USF took a six-point lead shortly after the intermission, but Wolthers' free throws with 8:05 remaining put the Bears in front again, 43-41.

The Dons immediately took the lead back and never gave it up.

Southern California had no luck in opening their season with a pair against North Carolina State. Beaten 67-59 Friday in Greensboro, the Trojans were completely helpless Saturday at Raleigh.

Defending NCAA champions UCLA broke the game open in the second half in romping to victory over Oklahoma State. It was the Bruins' third victory against one loss. Gail Goodrich paced scorers with 20 points.

St. Mary's hit only 28.8 per cent of its floor shots against Utah's staunch defense as the Utes toyed with the vsitors.

GAL PAL SPARKS SNEAD'S VICTORY

SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — At the age of 52, Sam Snead still wins golf tournaments. As Mike Souchak once said, Sam will still by winning them — sore feet and all — when he reaches 60.

Yesterday, the West Virginia mountaineer won another one. But for his latest trip to the bank, Sam had to give credit to a young woman.

Shirley Englehorn, Snead's partner in the $40,000 Scotch Mixed Foursomes Tournament, made Sam even richer by using a sand wedge and a putter to bag a couple of eagles.

The shots gave the team a seven-under-par 65 for the final round and a 72-hole total of 272, 16-under-par for the 6,723-yard Harder Hall course.

If Shirley had missed either one, they might not have withstood the challenge of Dow Finsterwald and Marlene Hagge, who shot an identical 65 to finish one strike behind at 273.

At the 11th hole, Snead lashed a 300-yard drive and Shirley chipped in from 50 yards out for an eagle deuce. At the 17th, she dropped a 25-foot putt for her second eagle and the team split $5,600 first prize.

Exploding out of a bunker, Toski holed a 30-yard shot for a birdie on the eighth hole. Then he stepped up to the ninth tee and lofted a 171-yard four iron shot for a hole-in-one, the fifth ace of his career.

Michigan, 2 Other Top Quints Upset

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Out in Lincoln, Neb., they think a lot of sophomore Fred Hare, who, they believe, will develop into a fine basketball player if he can learn to take better percentage shots.

And in Detroit, where top-ranked Michigan plays runner-up Wichita tonight, Wolverine Coach Dave Strack wishes the youngster had concentrated on percentage shots Saturday night when Nebraska jolted Michigan 74-73. Hare's winning basket in the waning seconds was rather unconventional.

The Shockers, led by All-America Dave Stallworth, who scored 26 points and had 13 rebounds, eased past BYU completing a sweep of their two game series.

OTHER UPSETS

Michigan wasn't the only ranked team to get beat Saturday. Third-ranked Vanderbilt and No. 4 St. Louis also went down.

St. Louis' height advantage was overcome by a scrappy Missouri club which won 72-56. Ned Monsees a 6-foot-5, 230-pounder, scored 24 points and grabbed 15 rebounds as the Tigers handed the Billikens their first loss in four starts.

The other ranked teams all won. San Francisco, No. 5, topped California 65-55, six-ranked Minnesota routed Marquette 78-59, No. 7 CLA, whipped Oklahoma State 68-52, Duke, eighth in the poll, whacked South Carolina 111-72, No. 9, Kentucky, belted Syracuse 110-77 and 10th-ranked St. John's squeezed by Miami, Fla. 79-77.

Baylor, averagng 107 points a game, racked up Trinity University 139-88. The Bears fell 15 points of Furman's record 154 registered in 1954. In other scoring shows, Illinois blasted Washington 103-59, Indiana won its fourth straight 107-81 over North Carolina and Duke walloped South Carolina 111-72.

Patterson On Road Back; Powell Retires After Kayo

He said he planned to take a break until Friday, when he will resume preparations for a 12-round bout with Canadian George Chuvalo Jan. 29. The fight is billed as an elimination leading to a title bout, World Boxing Association version.

The victory was Patterson's third straight since he suffered two straight one-round knockouts at the hands of Sonny Liston. His other victories, both in Sweden, included a knockout of Italian Santo Amonti and a decision over Eddie Machen.

PRO CAGE ROUNDUP

Baylor, West Heroes In Lakers' Triumph

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elgin Baylor returned to the Los Angeles Lakers line-up last night and for awhile it looked like he was all Coach Fred Schaus' club would need to defeat the Detroit Pistons. As it turned out, Jerry West was the man who made the difference.

West's two free throws in the final 30 seconds gave the Lakers a 116-115 victory over the Pistons and extended Los Angeles' Western Division lead to 1½ games over idle St. Louis.

Baylor, who had missed three games with a leg injury, scored 35 points and had 26 rebounds pacing the Laker victory. Los Angeles built a 14 point lead in the third period and seemed home free.

But the Pistons rallied and finally caught the Lakers on Don Kojis' jump shot midway through the final period. From there it was a see-saw battle with West's two free throws breaking a 114-114 tie with 30 seconds left. Rod Thorn's foul shot narrowed it to a point but then the Lakers killed the clock to clinch it.

But the 76ers, who played in was moved and the club's name changed last season, came back with Hal Greer pacing the rally.

Greer, who scored 36 points, tossed in seven free throws in the last three minutes and the Knicks began fouling to break Philadelphia's stalling tactics.

In Saturday's action, Boston whipped Baltimore 112-99, New York drubbed Philadelphia 133-106, San Francisco toppled Detroit 124-107 and Cincinnati turned back St. Louis 115-109.

Clemente Is Bat King—Officially

CINCINNATI (AP) — Latin-America has good reason to be proud of its top ballplayers today.

Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, a Puerto Rican, and Cuban Tony Oliva won major league batting titles last season. Clemente was officially crowned Saturday when the final National League averages were released.

They showed that Clemente led with a .339 mark in capturing the title for the second time. The 30-year-old outfielder also finished first with .351 in 1961.

Rookie Rico Carty of Milwaukee was second in the 1964 batting competition with .330. He was followed by teammates Hank Aaron .328 and Joe Torre .321.

Willie Mays of San Francisco was the home run king with 47. Ken Boyer of the St. Louis Cards, the circuit's most valuable player, led in runs batted in with 119.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's rookie third baseman, was No. 1 in runs scored, 125, and tied Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs for the lead in triples. Each had 13.

Lee Maye of the Braves had the most doubles, 44. Other leaders were Nellie Fox of Houston in sacrifice hits with 20 and Clay Dalrymple of Philadelphia in sacrifice flies with eight.

Milwaukee compiled the highest club batting mark. The Braves edged St. Louis .2722 to .2721. Pittsburgh was third with .264.

Warriors Leave For Swing Through East

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors, still Western Division cellar dwellers, start a three-game Eastern swing at Pittsburgh tonight in a National Basketball Association meeting with the Philadelphia 76ers.

The teams have split the two games they have played this season, with the 76ers taking the last contest.

Wilt Chamberlain and Wayne Hightower are expected to be ready for action. Both players were out recently with broken noses and are wearing protective masks.

Despite their masked marvel appearances, Chamberlain and Hightower scored 33 and 13 points, respectively, in the Warriors' 124-107 victory Saturday night over the Detroit Pistons in San Francisco.

The victory moved the Warriors to within 1½ games of the fourth-place Pistons.

Lapkin Wins Yacht Race

Sacramento State Beaten By Montana In Bowl Game

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Montana State College quarterback Foy McClung, the hero of his school's 28-7 Camellia Bowl football victory over Sacramento State, gives the credit to pregame planning, a rugged line and fullback Bob Miller.

"I knew I could call on Miller any time and he'd get us three or four yards," said McClung after his team won the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Pacific Division title Saturday at Sacramento's Hughes Stadium.

Newsmen voted the quarterback from Hominy, Okla. the game's most valuable back and Bobcat coach Jim Sweeney called him "a tremendous quarterback, the finest competitor in the world."

The 160-pound signal caller ran for one touchdown, passed nine yards to halfback Jim uss for another and kicked two extra points. He missed one conversion attempt.

The other Bobcat scores came on a one yard run by halfback Dick Haden and a one-yard plunge by Miller that was followed by a two-point conversion run by Marv Tiller.

The Hornets moved down to the one yard line in three plays and fullback Mike Clemons boomed across for the score. He kicked the extra point.

A total of 9,097 watched the fourth annual Camellia Bowl, played for the first time under NCAA auspices.

Four San Rafael residents complained to police Saturday that windows in their cars or business houses were smashed Friday night.

Louis J. Berardi of 363 Santa Margarita Drive, who said someone hurled rocks through three windows on a truck owned by his employer, the Bell Typewriter Co. of San Francisco.

Elvus D. Regalia of the Medical-Dental Pharmacy, 211 D Street, who complained that a $30, 10 by six-foot window, was shattered.

Leonard Majore, manager of Brunner's Major Cleaners and Laundry, Third and Lindaro Streets. Majore said an empty wine bottle had been hurled through an 18 by 36 inch door glass, valued at $10.

Burglars Go To Work As The Choir Sings

Corte Madera burglars are getting so brash they steal from churches while the service is going on, police found yesterday.

They reported that someone entered the choir room at the Marin Lutheran Church, 649 Meadowsweet Drive, then picked up purses belonging to two women who were in the choir loft singing.

Victims were Alice L. McFadden of 4 Appolo Road, Belvedere Gardens and Joan Heydorn of 90 Granada Drive, Corte Madera.

Neither knew of the theft until a deacon found the rifled purses in a men's rest room. Police said $19 was missing from Mrs. McFadden's purse and $3 was gone from Mrs. Heydorn's.

Supervisors To Discuss Justice Hall

The Marin County Board of Supervisors is scheduled to discuss a proposed $20,841,000 five-year capital improvements program at its meeting at the Civic Center tomorrow.

The capital projects, including the Hall of Justice and the Veterans Memorial Auditorium, are scheduled for discussion at 11 a.m.

At its afternoon session the board is scheduled to review the proposal that the county join the City of Tiburon and the Strawberry Recreation District in purchasing about 14 acres of tidelands in Richardson Bay to halt a bay filling project.

'IT'S JUST FUN, that's all," is Jim Swanson's comment on his work as a volunteer at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in the eight years it has been open. And now he comes every day. Here Jim, left, and Steve Green prepare dinner for the hawk at the museum. Steve, who came every day during the summer, now comes twice a week to do such jobs. Both boys find natural science is their favorite school subject.

MRS. ROBERT DODD volunteers with the Marin City section of YWCA creative group play "for experience. I have a teacher's credential for kindergarten and will teach again someday." Two of her children are in the group which meets two mornings a week at her Mill Valley home. Volunteers, from left, Mrs. Dodd, Mrs. Jesse Thomas and Mrs. Marian DeBruyn. Three of nine available volunteers teach at each session.

'IT'S A KIND of obligation for me . . . my kids have been lucky and I owe a debt for that," says SM/Sgt. A. E. Butterfield, who with Mrs. M. C. Barbarisi, works one evening a week in the arts and crafts program at Juvenile Hall.

VOLUNTEERS

A Yuletide Story The Year Around

Imagine Marin County without its thousands of volunteers . . . no health associations, cancer, heart, mental health and other agencies, no United Bay Area Crusade workers, no auxiliaries or guilds, Girl or Boy Scouts, Camp Fire, Lions, Rotary or Kiwanis.

The list ranges from fun and frivolous groups to those concerned with basic health, welfare, culture and education needs of Marin, and no one can calculate the number of tax dollars saved by volunteers doing these essential jobs for their county.

AS A VOLUNTEERS' employment agency, the Volunteer Bureau of Marin, sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco Inc., serves those who wish to volunteer and non-profit agencies with jobs to be done. Its files contain work varied enough for nearly every interest and talent, requiring from 40 hours a week to a mere three hours a month.

Some jobs require training in a special field; many more need only a responsible volunteer. The employer will provide any training necessary. The bureau is at 725 A St., San Rafael.

VOLUNTEER WORK is not taken lightly—"I'll come Wednesday if it's convenient . . ." And while all the volunteers are rewarded by the knowledge that they are meeting a vital need, none is purely altruistic in his reasons for working—"It's just fun, that's all." "I owe a debt for my luck . . ." ". . . being with lonely people"—They feel they have received as much from their work as they have given.

Marin Women

'A VERY challenging job, but I enjoy being with children . . . " says Mrs. Vernon Norris who volunteers to work once a week at Sunny Hills as a teacher's aide, helping students with individual needs, freeing the teacher to work with the other 14 teen-agers in the school there.

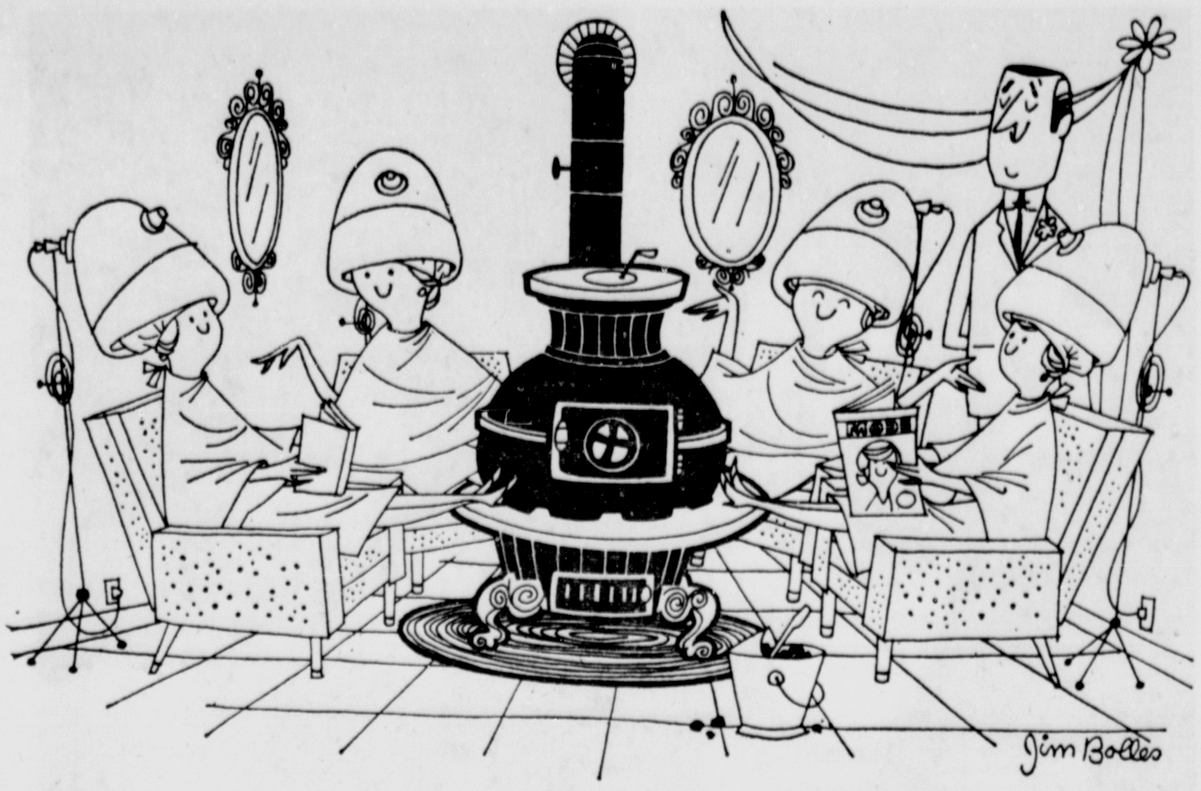

JOY AND SATISFACTION are the rewards, remarks Mrs. Evelyn Levy of the work done by volunteers at the Marin Easter Seal Society for Handicapped and Crippled Adults, who meet each week to make articles for charitable organizations. From left, Mrs. Paul Hughes, Mrs. S. C. Vange assisting Mrs. Ben Day, Mrs. Pauline Stephens, and Mrs. Francis Tryon assisting Mrs. Robert Callaghan—all are volunteers.

'I ENJOY being with lonely people and doing things for others," remarks Mrs. Estelle Smith, right, a member of the volunteer service branch of the Senior Citizens which works each week on any needed project. Here Mesdames Leda Savage, Margot Bull and Smith sew while William MacLane volunteers piano music.

What Only Her Hairdresser And Those Nearby May Know

By BARBARA HOSMER

Just as a man may have his club so has a woman her salon, and of what transpires within its walls only her hairdresser may be sure. But her actions and reactions are familiar to all who are undergoing the beautification process along with her . . . and some of the types are easily spotted.

There is the latecomer who rushes into the chair, leaving a breathy vapor of excuses through the waiting room as she hurries. Another is the virtuous earlybird which is distinguished from the others by its immediate agitation if it has to wait until its actual appointment time.

THERE IS USUALLY a no-babysitter mother who arrives by breaking trail for a caravan of moppets and toys, and for the next two hours the shop is lively with racing footsteps of tots who can't understand why "Mommy is taking so long."

A curious contrast, however, is the customer who is totally organized to enjoy her big moment out of the house alone. She totes knitting, letter-writing case, stamps, the book she's always wanted to read, leatherette cigarette case and lighter, as well as an efficient looking pair of glasses and sometimes knitting. Her getting set up under the dryer with her cup of coffee, letter case and pen open, her cigarette going, ashtray handy and feet propped at the comfortable angle is a process worth studying.

SOMETIMES THEY turn up in pairs and manage to exchange gossipy signals while draped over the lip of a washtray or to pantomime from the dryers while the others sleep blissfully through the din and heat of the machines, missing the drama.

She - who - is - having - a - manicue is given the spotlight, and, with the manicurist carries on another pantomimed interchange which takes on the import of a summit meeting to those temporarily deafened by the dryers.

USUALLY, TOO, there's a jumping jack who leaps out of the dryer for magazine, phone call, water, pop or coffee, and to inform her hairdresser she surely must be dry. This is the girl who flips her dryer dial from hot to "comfort" the moment her hairdresser turns away, and who knows the shop ropes right down to where they keep the kleenex.

Also there's the entranced-mannikin type who fixes her gaze upon herself in the mirror before she settles into the chair and never lets it waver during set or comb-out, no matter what may transpire around her.

OTHERS ARE THE jolly ones. Finding the visit a bright spot, they enter into an exchange of tidbits and confidences of the neighborhood with all the joy of a panel show. They are likely to leave a small package gift for the attendant at holiday time . . .

THE COSTUME FOR the salon visit also merits some attention — Young mothers hurry past in stretch pants and pixie boots, having shed camel coats outside, and under the dryer they leaf through the recent movie or glamor book, half consciously checking to see how their households stack up. Others try for the costumed look, with ski resort drama, while a few who have dropped by before a luncheon or after shopping in town wear the "nice" suit or dress which has to be protected by one of those pale pink milady smocks with lavender poodle decoration.

Teen-agers amble through with their short skirts and schoolbooks, and they want "only a little cut off, dontcha know," and set on huge oil-drum-like rollers to be sure not to have any "dumb-looking curls."

THE HAIRDRESSING salon provides a place of bright lights and mirrors and a slight aura of glamor, a place in every neighborhood where the stresses of the outside world don't really intrude. . . .

Some Cook Book Gift Ideas

"Lessons in Gourmet Cooking" by Libby Hillman (Hearthside) is by a woman who knows good food and has taught cooking for over 10 years in the adult program of a suburban New York public-school system. The many questions asked by pupils, along with their answers, are included.

"The Gourmet Cooking School Cookbook" by Dione Lucas with Darlene Geis (Bernard Geis Associates) should appeal to anyone who has admired Mrs. Lucas' demonstrations of French cooking on television. It is based on complete menus for which detailed recipes, plus marketing and serving suggestions, are given.

"An Herb and Spice Cook Book" by Craig Claiborne (Harper and Row) is pleasantly relaxed about a subject that sometimes makes cooks nervous. The author, editor of "The New York Times Cook Book," briefly discusses the herbs and spices, one by one, and gives recipes using them.

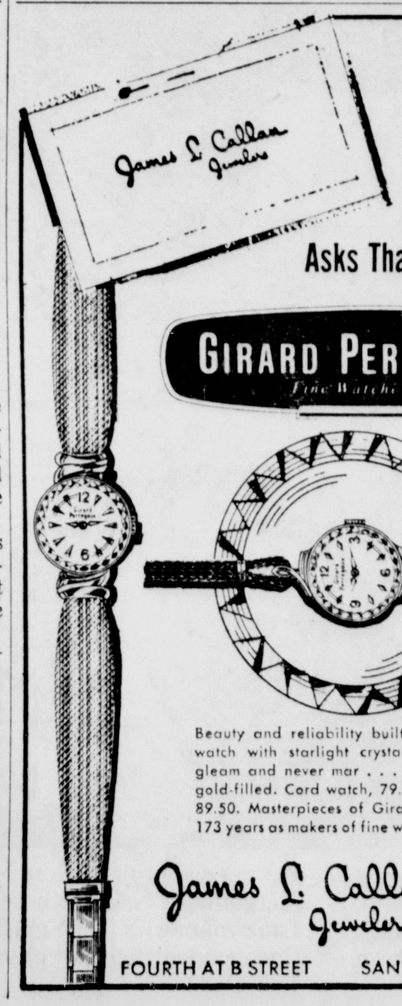

Mothers' Guild Yuletide Meet

St. Raphael's Mothers' Guild will hold their Christmas meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. The guild will be entertained by many of the children of St. Raphael's school under the direction of Sister M. Bernard and assisted by Sister M. Rachael.

A Whimsical Touch

Here's a suggestion to enable you to inject a whimsical informal note in an otherwise formal design of green holly and red carnations for a mantel, coffee table, or top of a television set: Arrange holly and the flowers around a small piece of driftwood that branches upward at one end. Then seat two or three pixies on the branches.

Flowers With Candles

Many bewitching arrangements of flowers with candles can easily be made for the holiday season. Especially attractive are red carnations arranged in a low round, or rectangular, green flower container, with a dozen tall white candles set at graceful angles. Artificial grapes, green leaves, or other Christmas greens may be used to fill out the design.

When Measuring For Drapes Get Help From The Salesgirl

By EUNICE FARMER

I would like to make draperies but don't know how to go about measuring for the right amount of material. Can you help me?

Mrs. A. G.

Dear Mrs. A. G.:

There are so very many different types of draperies and so many ways of treating windows that it would be impossible to give you a helpful answer.

May I suggest that you visit your drapery department, you will find many interesting booklets on window treatment. With these suggestions and the help of the salesgirls who know just exactly how much you will need, you should be guided in the right direction. If there is a pattern in your fabric you will have to allow for matching.

I have finished a suit which has the new severe, men's styling and I am having trouble with the collar for the first time. The collar will simply not cover the neckline seam at the center back. What did I do wrong and how can I correct it?

Mrs. V.L.

Dear Mrs. V. L.:

It probably isn't anything you did wrong, the collars are so narrow on the new suits and coats that many women have been writing me about this same problem.

As long as the collars lay nicely on your neck we can do something "sneaky." Lay collar over the back neckline, so it comes over the seam about ½ inch. Now lift up the top collar, while still holding firmly in place, and tack the under collar very securely to the neckline of the suit. This should be tacked about 1 inch from the finished collar edge so it will not show. Be sure stitches are not showing, or even caught, in the top collar.

NEATNESS COUNTS

This week's tailor trix winner is Mrs. Bernard J. Gerrity, Shavertown, Pa. She sent this idea. When using shredded foam for stuffing dolls, animals, small pillows, etc., for Christmas, hold the article to be stuffed in a very large paper bag on a table. What doesn't go into the toy falls to the bottom of the bag and not on the floor.

GIFTS

Since it's so close to Christmas, I thought I'd suggest a last minute gift to make. It's glamorous bobeches for your candlesticks.

1. Cut the cardboard from an empty toilet paper roll into strips about ½ inch wide.

2. Paste brush fringe, red, green or white, inside circle of cardboard, brush edge up.

3. Paste a circle of the brush fringe on the outside of circle, brush side up.

4. Before lapping brush fringe, insert a small piece of artificial holly so it will stand straight up, or twist together the wires of two tiny, colored ornaments and insert them. There are many clever things you can do to these. Slip over any candle sticks (brush side up).

You'll want to make dozens of them, they are so cute and different, add so much gaiety for just a few cents and minutes.

Newspaper advertising makes things happen.

There's something about the very nature of the newspaper that stimulates buying action, whatever the product. Maybe it's because the newspaper has an atmosphere of action and urgency. Maybe it's because its pages are full of what's going on right now . . . right here . . . today.

Whatever it is, it gives the newspaper's advertising something extra and makes it more immediate, more compelling. That's why advertisers invested $3.7 billion in newspapers last year to generate buying action among the 100 million readers who shop the newspaper day after day.

SANTA LUCIA FETE

Mill Valley's Mama Gravander lights the last candle on the crown of Santa Lucia (Heather Pemberton) at the party given last night at Mrs. Gravander's home in observance of the Swedish Festival on Dec. 13. Traditionally in Swedish homes the eldest or prettiest daughter serves refreshments to the rest of the family before dawn, saying "Today is the darkest day of the year, but Santa Lucia brings you light and cheer . . ." Mrs. Gravander, a well known weaver, carries on the tradition with a party at her home each year. Mama Gravender received a decoration from the King of Sweden at the party. Batik Process Explained For Corte Madera School

Dyeing a piece of batik fabric may take an Indonesian native as long as three months. Once beeswax and dyes made from tree bark were used, but now paraffin and dyes made from petroleum have taken over. Still, the procedure has not changed, according to Mrs. Charles Mackenzie of Corte Madera.

Barbara and Charles Mackenzie were married and lived in Indonesia before coming to Marin. They brought back samples of the unique cloth, but more important, Mrs. Mackenzie brought back samples of unfinished work and implements to dye the cloth.

She showed how batik is manufactured and her husband showed a film on Indonesia for students at Neil Cummin school today. The three Mackenzie daughters attend the school.

Mackenzie worked in what was the Dutch East Indies from 1947 to 1951, during a period of unrest as the people were pressing for independence from the Netherlands. He was employed by the Standard Vacuum Oil Co. He met his wife, a registered nurse, when he was in New York preparing to leave for Indonesia and they were married in Sumatra in 1948. She worked on a plantation, running a small clinic.

It was a time of violence. "People were shot for their bicycles," Mrs. Mackenzie recalled. But Americans felt fairly safe. On weekends, they would visit native villages to take moving pictures and learn about local customs.

Mackenzie moved to Marin this year while he is studying at the University of San Francisco on a special grant.

The batik dyeing method allows intricate designs because of the use of wax, according to Mrs. Mackenzie. A piece of bleached muslin is coated with the wax on both sides, and then the wax is cut away to form the pattern.

Or, a metal pattern may be used, dipped in hot wax and then stamped on the cloth. Afterwards, the cloth is dipped in the dye, and the color remains only where there is no wax.

Once the cloth is dry. Wax can be added to some places and cut away in others. The cloth is then dipped in a second color. After several repetitions, each with a different pattern and color, hot water removes the remaining wax.

Sandra Sandahl Is Bride In San Rafael Ceremony

The First Presbyterian Church in San Rafael was the setting on Saturday afternoon for the nuptials of Sandra Mae Sandahl of San Rafael and Raymond Quintanar of Whittier. The Rev. Wesley Baker officiated at the ceremony for which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Tina Hermansen of San Francisco was the maid of honor, in a floor length gown of moss green crepe. The bridemaids Diane Salas of Sacramento and Barbra Ostrande of Concord, both cousins of the bride, wore similar dresses in a gold shade.

Danil Hancock of Oregon was best man and the ushers were Darrell Marcus of San Francisco and Carl E. Sandahl Jr., the bride's brother, of San Jose.

Sandra was graduated from San Rafael High School and attended San Francisco State College. Mrs. F. M. Dreisbach of San Leandro is her grandmother.

Raymond is the son of Mrs. Carmen Hollman of Whittier and A. A. Quintanar of Los Angeles. He was graduated from Whittier High School and San Francisco State College and is a lieutenant with the U. S. Army. A. A. Quintanar Jr. of Whittier is his brother.

Gate Span Bus Toll Trim Deserves A Second Look

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato, one of Marin's two representatives on the Golden Gate Bridge board, has proposed a novel idea that deserves more than just a casual brushoff.

He proposes that Greyhound buses, which now pay $1 per crossing, be allowed to cross at 13 cents per trip.

One is to give the bus system a financial break, thus staving off or minimizing bus fare increases that Greyhound is trying to get before the state Public Utilities Commission.

The second and more important is to keep commuters from shunning buses and taking to their own cars, thus adding to the load on already over-choked Golden Gate Bridge.

The proposal is intriguing. In fact, why not carry it a step further and allow all buses used for public transit to cross the Golden Gate free of charge?

If the revenues gained from free crossing can then be passed on by the bus company in the form of lower bus fares to commuters, then more commuters may be induced to leave their cars home and take to buses.

Golden Gate Bridge directors all agree wholeheartedly on one point—cars must be discouraged and mass transit such as bus transportation must be encouraged. It's on how to go about it that differences arise.

Anyone who has commuted to and from San Francisco will agree with Hardcastle that "the crisis is upon us."

During the peak rush hours, traffic is choked from North Marin to downtown San Francisco.

"It is wishful thinking that a second deck will be approved and completed within the next seven years or a second crossing constructed within the next 12 years," Hardcastle pointed out.

"It appears the only way to cope with the congestion is to make bus commuting so attractive the people won't wish to drive their cars."

More buses and less private cars seems to be the only way to meet the immediate problem, pending longer range solutions like a second crossing.

Of course, Hardcastle's proposal means a subsidy to bus transportation. But it is a recognized fact that mass public transportation will need some form of subsidy if it is to be successful.

Permitting buses to cross toll free is a painless subsidy that the public can well afford and even welcome, if by so doing, congestion over the bridge can be relieved.

Other suggestions have been made to lure commuters away from private cars and into buses. Leland S. Murphy of Marin, outgoing bridge director, proposed that tolls on private cars be raised so high that commuters will be forced to take buses.

Hardcastle's proposal, to lower bus tolls to 13 cents or even to nothing, looks like a practical interim solution to an intolerable situation that is building up on the Marin-San Francisco run.

We hope the bridge directors pursue the matter further and ultimately accept Hardcastle's proposal.

Ooo, That Feels So Good!

People who sentimentally believe that mother and father birds sit patiently on their eggs confidently waiting for them to hatch will be disappointed to learn that such is not the case.

Birds sit on their eggs because the cool eggs feel good against hot, sore spots which develop on the breasts of all nesting birds. It would be too much to expect a bird-brain to figure out what was going on inside those shells.

Nature found a way, sneaky as it is, of insuring that the birds do keep the eggs warm. Scientific tests have shown that the birds would just as soon sit on a marble or a door knob.

However, once the eggs are hatched, the parent birds do demonstrate selfless devotion and tender, loving care.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Good Question Might Be Just Who Is Running University?

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A good question throughout the State of California these days is who is running the University of California, or to paraphrase a little, is anyone running the institution?

From all indications, the gyrations of university officials in connection with the trumped-up issue of free speech on the campus seem to have turned over management of the tax-supported educational center of California to a few agitators.

Even Gov. Edmund G. Brown, on the university board of regents, is vague about investigating the ring-leaders. Asked in a recent press conference about a probe to determine whether these agitators emanate from Communist or Communist-front organizations, the governor said he assumed the Federal Bureau of Investigation is making such an investigation.

The group seeking the right to pursue any political activity it wishes on the university campus, composed of some students and some non-students, eventually will be recognized for what it is, a small corps of highly trained young people, facile in the art of making trouble on issues which might be popular, and a larger group of students impressionable enough to fall in line with phony propaganda.

THIS GROUP at the moment appears to be in control of the university, as it claims a victory in its demands.

However this "victory" may be a hollow one when the matter of granting privileges obtained through sit-ins and threats of a demonstration to shut down the university itself comes before the board of regents at its next meeting.

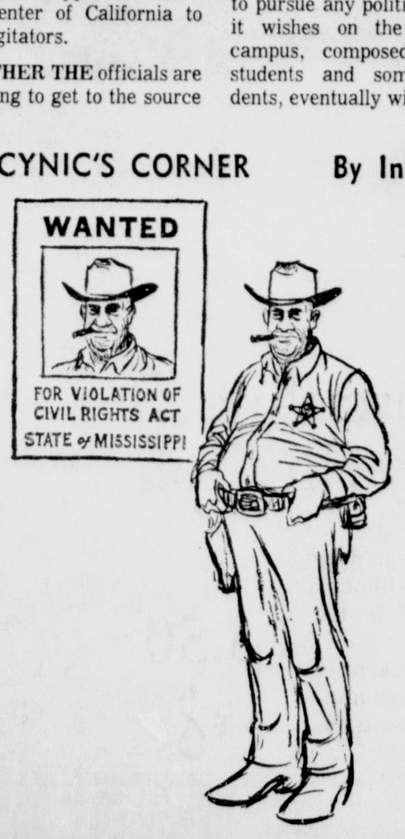

From press reports, the "academic senate," composed of certain faculty members, has "great influence" with the board of regents. Whether this "great influence" will extend to having the board knuckle down to accepting its recommendations and changing its rules regarding political activity remains to be seen.

UNDER THE California Constitution, the board of regents is supposed to administer the affairs of the university, which is designated as a "public trust."

The board has "full powers of organization and government."

When the people adopted the amendment in 1918 setting up the univerity as a public trust they specified it "shall be entirely independent of all political or sectarian influence." Whether this provision could be applied to political activity on the campus is also a question, but at least it could be argued that such activity is unconstitutional.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Reader Blinks At 'Startling Editorial'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have never met Mr. Ullner but am "blinking twice" over your startling editorial of Dec. 2 about him and his Conservative Movement.

As long as you took time to quote almost the complete advertisement of the "Republicans for Conservative Action," why did you leave out the punch line "Neither Will We" in reference to compromising principles? The Editor has every right to state his principles and opinions. When you use terms like "so-called," and "claimed enthusiastic support" etc. then deliberately leave out a most important statement, one wonders if the Editor has principles or just erred.

An honest fight over divergent ideas is stimulating exercise, but to use your editorial page in the above manner is unjust. You have brought out the "mule" in those who oppose you and disappointed those whose ideas you are trying to represent.

World Leader Hard To Find

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the I-J of Dec 3, James Marlow says: "L. B. Johnson has had more than a year to assert his world leadership—(some leadership!)" It's our humble opinion that even with the help of James Marlow and his preparation for some 999 years he could not qualify for the job.

It seems that on our little earth there never was a Homo Sapien, noble enough for the office of world leadership . . . Genghis Khan, Tamerlane, Julius Caesar, Napoleon, Hitler . . .

Also in the I-J Dec. 3, there was a letter by Clarence Tremblay, asserting that our country feels proud of being a "Christian Nation," in spite of its works not proving the claim, and too many of its morals slipping.

Some 2000 years ago a man who made some tremendous (sustained) claims stood before Pilate . . . who said:

"Are you a king?"

"Yes—but my kingdom is not of this world . . ." because a perfect Kingdom can only exist by the active cooperation of its subjects.

At this time we celebrate the King's birthday.

Land Ordinance Called Hardship

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Board of Supervisors has imposed an hardship on many property owners of West Marin. Formerly, we were allowed to divide our property into three parcels if we wished to sell. Ordinance 1392 forces us to subdivide, or sell our entire holdings in one piece. It takes a small fortune to subdivide, and most of us do not have mink-lined pockets.

For example, I own 20 acres of pasture land. I am about to retire, and recently had my property surveyed for three parcels. I do not want to sell my home and move. I was born here. Naturally, I have many friends in West Marin, and we all feel that this ordinance is unjust and arbitrary.

We are trying to get the Board of Supervisors to reconsider this ruling. Maybe, after all, it's possible to fight City Hall.

Discipline Upheld Over Cal Freedom

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Rather late than never, those oppressed pseudo-intellectuals who now rally to the cause of "free speech" should be reminded that throughout all history so-called "freedoms" have been sacrificed in favor of that discipline and dedication of purpose without which greater goals can seldom be attained.

Six thousand Marines who lie buried in the sands of Iwo Jima give mute but adequate testimony.

Misfits Create Trouble At Cal

Editor, Independent-Journal:

My Independent-Journal informs me the Regents of the University of California (they have the only legal control of the school) are about to step in and chop a few heads (egg-heads is a better word) and I'd say it is about time. I hope they have the intelligence to fire some of the faculty and expel any student who persists in breaking the laws of the campus to say nothing of the laws of the community.

From what I have read, heard and seen re the whole matter, it appears it is not a question of free speech or free thinking, but a case of a few misfits creating a riot to stimulate their own depraved egos and draw attention to themselves. . . . Nobody questions their right to think and vote as they think best, but the taxpayers have a right to insist they limit their politics to off-campus. In my opinion, our schools and churches should get out of the field of politics and back to their respective fields of education and religion.

Although I couldn't agree with his tactics, the late Senator McCarthy wasn't too far afield when he said our youngsters are being taught by Communists, socialists and extreme leftists. When members of the faculty start to take sides with a few so-called liberal agitators who advocate mob-rule then it is time to look into the off-campus activities of some members of the faculty.

Although I seldom agree with Governor Pat Brown, this is one time I must give him a pat (no pun intended) on the shoulder for his intervention at the University. Why don't these beatniks, rabble rousers or whatever you choose to call them rent an off-campus hall and shout and demonstrate to their hearts' content? Instead, they choose to make a laughing stock of what is one of the finest schools in the country. The taxpayers who support this University don't have to condone such nonsense.

Yes On Prop. 14 —Feeling Guilty?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Why are all of those people who voted "Yes on Proposition 14" still trying to justify themselves? They talk and write on and on and on. Guess they still feel guilty or else they wouldn't have to try to explain themselves so long after the election.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A GENTLEMAN in the South paused on the way home to retrieve the family poodle, left at the vet's. Back with his wife, he said, "The poor animal must have hated his visit. He barked all the way home as if he was trying to tell me something." "Your're right," nodded his wife. "He was trying to tell you that you brought the wrong dog home."

WHEN IT CAME to absent-mindedness, the late G. K. Chesterton took the cake. On one occasion he had a date to meet his publisher and felt he wouldn't be able to keep it, so he dashed off a note, extending his apologies and suggesting a meeting a week later. He then took the note personally to the publisher's office, arriving at exactly the time of his appointment.

THE LATE Fred Allen said there was nothing like Fall River for a three-day vacation. It always seemed like two weeks.

Johnson Pulls A Turnabout And Keeps Mum For Awhile

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Lyndon B. Johnson can afford to stay mum for a while, and he is. Ever since he won the election the White House has been practically soundproof, and this will probably go on into January.

This is enough to irritate anyone who can't get used to the great stillness around here. It is unusual, but Johnson seems to be playing it cool.

TRUE, HE HAS talked to businessmen about prosperity and how he wants to get along with them; he issued a statement on Vietnam; and he had a two-day talk with British Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

But he didn't say anything unexpected in his business talk besides urging bankers to keep their interest rate down. And the statement on Vietnam was so vague no one could tell what he had in mind.

As for Wilson, the two men announced they had discussed a number of things and both were anxious to find solutions. But they didn't offer any.

OTHERWISE, the five weeks since election have been very quiet, with Johnson spending most of his time on his Texas ranch, having his aides and others fly down to see him.

This is a switch from the way Johnson skipped around through most of 1963, before and during the campaign, making speeches and holding news conferences almost on the run.

He was always saying something, or doing something, a man in search of approval. But then, when he got such overwhelming approval in the election, it's no wonder if he felt silence would be appropriate for a time and for a change.

YET THE VERY quietude created a mystery, a wondering: What's he up to? Of all people, and unintentionally, it was Sen. Barry M. Goldwater who helped create this condition.

Goldwater spent so much campaign time defending himself, particularly against the charge of being trigger-happy, that he did very little about saying exactly what he'd do if elected.

This was wonderful for Johnson. Since the polls already had him away out in front and Goldwater wasn't offering specific programs, Johnson didn't have to try to outbid with programs of his own.

THIS LEFT HIM free to move and maneuver as he thought best at the time, picking and choosing among a lot of programs he might otherwise have had to pin himself to in the campaign.

In the meantime, being Johnson, the president has been busy behind the walls of the ranch-house and the White House preparing for next year when Congress comes back.

So, for all of these reasons, he probably will keep on not saying much until next month.

THIS SEEMS simple but what isn't simple is how he is going to make good on just about the biggest promise he made—and this was long before the campaign.

This was the promise of the "Great Society." It got a lot of attention when he mentioned it in speeches last April and May.

He will have four years to spell it out. But almost certainly sooner than that he'll have to spell out what he has in mind about foreign policy, a field much less familiar to him than domestic politics and problems.

If he follows the technique he used when he ran the Senate back in the 1950s, he'll probably soft-pedal his utterances on foreign policy until he has his chessmen all lined up.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

LBJ Friend Faces Senate's Heavy Guns

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is on blunt notice he faces a bruising fight if he names one-time Interior Undersecretary Abe Fortas to a job requiring Senate confirmation.

Democrats as well as Republicans are set to vehemently oppose him.

Fortas' burning ambition is to be on the Supreme Court. But the prospects of a vacancy are dim. The nine justices appear to be in good health, and none has given any indication of intending to retire.

ANOTHER FORTAS aspiration is the attorney generalship — despite planted reports to the contrary. The once New Dealer, now a wealthy corporation lawyer, would like very much to be head of the Justice Department. As one of the president's closest personal advisers, Fortas long has had his eye on the cabinet.

A number of issues would be heatedly raised going all the way back to the 1930s when Fortas was a young lawyer in the fiercely controversial Agricultural Adjustment Administration. He was interior undersecretary under the late Harold Ickes from 1942 to 1946, when the latter fired him after a bitter row.

HOTTEST CHALLENGES would be based on Fortas' backstage role in the three sensational scandals that have rocked the administration—the Billie Sol Estes case, the headline-making Bobby Baker investigation, and the Walter Jenkins affair.

Detailed records have been compiled on this behind-the-scenes activity. For example: When the White House got wind that several Washington newspapers had learned of Jenkins' arrest on morals charges, Fortas was rushed to the publishers in an effort to dissuade them from publishing the dynamite-loaded story in the midst of the presidential campaign.

WHEN BAKER faced a Senate probe, he retained Fortas as his attorney. But shortly thereafter, the latter "withdrew" on the ground of "possible embarrassment arising from certain assignments he has undertaken for the administration."

VICE PRESIDENT-ELECT Hubert Humphrey is making no trips abroad—until spring at least. President Johnson wants him to stick close to Capitol Hill to help push through the big legislative program he wants to enact in the first three months of the new Congress. Another Humphrey assignment is to help the National Committee raise funds for the 1966 congressional elections. The Minnesotan will be used as a top attraction at Democratic fund-raising dinners throughout the country. . . . A group of California Democratic congressmen have bluntly told the president to get rid of Interior Secretary Stewart Udall. The critical legislators made no bones they consider Udall "unfriendly" to their state and think he should be replaced. They caustically pointed out that California went for Johnson by a majority in excess of one million, while he lost Arizona, Udall's home state.

With Winter's Arrival Come Black Birds And Blue Surfers

They are sitting, feather to feather, on the high wires down behind the Mill Valley sewage treatment plant, chattering like crazy and causing the wires to swing like a jump rope.

"There must be 5,000 of them," said Eddie Giesecke, who added the birds choose to return to the plant each year.

SURFERS LIKE winter because the breakers are better due to winter storm swells and because of absence of westerly winds.

Winter means one turns blue more rapidly. Turning blue in winter takes between 20 and 45 minutes as against one to three hours in summer, according to young Rudy Ferris, who lives part time in Bolinas, part time in San Rafael.

"When I come out of the water," says Bill McDonough of Strawberry, "I'm pink, blue, red and yellow. What we do is build a fire on the beach and buy a package of weiners to cook over the fire.

"You have to watch out for the rips. They're bad, man," said Bill.

MELTON FERRIS, Rudy's dad, says surfers get to know the rips, pot holes and strong local currents. If you lose your surf board you are considered "wiped out," he said. But usually, through the buddy system, one of the other surfers swimming alongside will rescue the board, pulling it back with his toes. "Probably the greatest danger is being struck by your own board or someone else's," he added.

Most surfers wear a vest which not only helps keep them warm but makes them more buoyant. A surfer's trunks are called "baggies."

A side advantage to surfing is the day-to-day brush with the sea life. "All the time there are seals around the surfers," said Ferris. "They body surf with them. The seals can surf as well or better than the guy on the board. . . . Last summer there was one who must have thought he was a trained seal and used to try to climb upon the board with the kids. They called him Eddie.

"Dennis Cuyler once ran into a big sea lion near Duxbury Reef who chased him, probably because she had a pup in the area. Cuyler took off at once. The kids have found themselves in the middle of a school of striped bass chasing anchovies and, when the sea is black with mutton (shearwater) birds, they don't pay any attention to the surfers.

"THERE IS SOMETHING about these kids who have the stamina and guts to go out there and sit on the funny boards in water about 40 or 50 degrees. . . ."

Ferris, a sponsor for the U. S. Surfing Assn., said there were seven surfers three years ago at Bolinas and Stinson. There are about 400 to 500 who surf sporadically now and 150 to 200 regularly. "I counted 80 boards in the water and as many on the beach at Bolinas about two weekends ago." Marin youngsters belong to the North Point Surfers.

Ferris explained that the young people are extremely conscientious about combing the beach after a contest so as not to leave the beach littered.

"You rapidly separate the men from the boys because two times out and the only guy that is left to keep going is the guy who is so hooked on it he is willing to attack the water . . . cold, miserable, wind blowing and all the rest."

WELL, IT'S ALMOST winter. But if you think it's cold in your woolies before the fireplace, think of the brave boys in "baggies" at Bolinas.

Red China Needs U. S. Embassy So Students Can Vent Anger

WASHINGTON—Just about a week ago, 700,000 angry and frustrated Chinese gathered in Peking's Tien An Man Square to demonstrate against American intervention in the Congo. The tragedy was that there was no American embassy to demonstrate against. This points up as well as anything why the recognition of Red China should be reconsidered.

Had we had an American embassy in Peking and a USIA library, the Chinese would have probably broken every window in the building and burnt up every book, as the Indonesians did in Jakarta. This would have given the United States an opportunity to present a strong protest to the Chinese and demand immediate payment for the damage to our embassy.

THE FACT that we have no relations with Red China makes it impossible to protest to them about wrecking our embassy and prevents us from collecting money for the damage to USIA books.

Furthermore, the fact that the Chinese had no American embassy to vent their anger against has caused them to hate us more than even our actions in the Congo. It's pretty tough to parade through the streets of Peking for hours on end without any place to march on.

In Moscow, during the same period, the Soviets marched on the American embassy and did as much damage as the Soviet police would let them. The Russians went away happy, with a warm spot in their hearts for Americans, and ever since the demonstrations relations between the United States and Russia have improved.

AN OBSERVER in Cairo reports that the Egyptians have never felt better than they have since they burned up the USIA library and wrecked the U. S. Marine barracks.

But Peking is still a mass of seething students and workers whose anger is bottled up inside them.

Unless America does something to release this anger, we could be confronted with a serious international problem which eventually may become insoluble.

ALTHOUGH American policy is still against the recognition of Red China, there are other solutions which could be worked out.

One might be to build an American embassy in Peking without recognizing the Communist government. The building would be designed to withstand the assaults of the largest type of Red Chinese demonstration, but would also have enough windows so the demonstrators could let off steam.

We wouldn't have to staff the embassy with anyone except repairmen and glaziers who could handle the damage.

AFTER TWO or three demonstrations against the U. S. embassy, the Chinese would be so happy they might start demonstrating against the Peking government, demanding a rapprochement with the United States.

In return for this, the United States would also benefit. If Peking built an embassy in Washington, it would give our students a chance to demonstrate against the Red Chinese over their aid to North Vietnam.

Before long the two countries would be trying to burn down each other's embassies and you would have normal diplomatic relations between two of the great powers in the world. It's something for Dean Rusk to think about.

Safety Suggestions Result In Case

Two Marin County residents, Zdzislaw Kukulski of Sausalito and Robert A. Amundsen of Mill Valley, have received $15 cash awards for safety suggestions to be used on the Army Corps of Engineers debris boats.

Both men, employees of the corps of engineers, were presented the award and citations by Lt. Col. Robert H. Allan, San Francisco district engineer.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

American aviator James Doolittle was born on this day in 1896.

On this day in history:

In 1819, Alabama entered the Uniou as the 22nd state.

In 1902 the cableship Silverton set out from San Francisco to lay the first cable connecting Honolulu with the Golden Gate.

In 1961, 20 children were killed when a trian hit a school bus near Greely, Colorado.

A thought for the day: Douglas MacArthur said: "It is fatal to enter any war without the will to win it."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Players Learn To Do What Is Right In Bridge Game

Those who don't play bridge may do what is expected of them instead of what is right.

If this thought horrifies you, cooperate in teaching everybody to play bridge so that they will all do the right thing all the time—as Mrs. Stella Rebner did in the accompanying hand.

East dealer
Neither side vulnerable

	NORTH ♠ K J 10 7 2 ♡ 8 4 ◇ 5 2 ♣ K J 9 6
WEST ♠ 8 5 ♡ 10 6 5 2 ◇ K 10 7 6 3 ♣ 7 2		EAST ♠ A Q 6 3 ♡ 7 3 ◇ A Q J 8 4 ♣ 5 4
	SOUTH ♠ 9 4 ♡ A K Q J 9 ◇ 9 ♣ A Q 10 8 3

East	South	West	North
1 ◇	1 ♡	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	4 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ◇ K

Mrs. Rebner knew that she was expected to lead the six of diamonds, the fourth-highest card of her partner's suit. It just didn't happen to be the right lead.

OPENING LEAD

The opening lead of a low diamond would force East to win the trick. West would never be able to lead again, and East would not be able to defeat the contract by leading solely from his own hand.

Mrs. Rebner saw that she could defend more effectively if she won the first trick.

Then she could lead at the second trick and thus help her partner. For this reason she opened the king instead of the six of diamonds.

SUBTLE SIGNAL

East signalled subtly by playing the queen of diamonds at the first trick. This could not ask for a diamond continuation since East could assure that himself by winning the first trick with the ace of diamonds and leading another diamond.

Instead, the play of an abnormally high diamond suggested a switch to a high suit rather than a low suit.

Mrs. Rebner had no trouble interpreting the signal. The two side suits were spades and clubs; and spades were higher than clubs. Hence the Los Angeles expert led the eight of spades at the second trick.

HIGH SPADES

East took two high spades and led another spade, whereupon West's 10 of hearts was sure to take the setting trick.

If South ruffed low, Mrs. Rebner would over-ruff; and if South ruffed high, the 10 of hearts would eventually become high.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:

♥ 10 6 5 2
♦ K 10 7 6 3
♣ 7 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds or pass.

This borderline decision depends more on your temperament than on your bridge skill. A conservative player will pass; an adventurous player will raise the diamonds.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Attorney Series Is Due On CBS-TV

By RICK du Brow

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — CBS-TV has finally decided to enter a new one-hour drama series about a prosecuting attorney, "For the People," in television's suicide slot: Opposite NBC-TV's top-rated "Bonanza" on Sunday nights.

CBS-TV, which is shuffling its schedule because of a slip in ratings, had announced last Friday that it was going to try to dent "Bonanza" by bringing back two other shows: The Danny Thomas series in rerun form, and a panel program, "Celebrity Game," with Carl Reiner. But a change of plans during the weekend ditched these and brought in the drama series, which stars William Shatner.

"For the People" will have its premiere Jan. 24. In the meantime, the hour slot, which is between the Ed Sullivan Show and "Candid Camera," will be filled by some specials, including a Dec. 27 color broadcast of England's royal ballet and some reruns of the outstanding Fred Astaire television musical efforts.

As previously announced, the CBS-TV series which have recently been trounced by "Bonanza"—the Joey Bishop program and "My Living Doll"—are being shifted to other nights. On Dec. 22, Bishop moves to Tuesdays, replacing "World War I," a documentary series that switches to early Sunday evenings. And this Wednesday, "My Living Doll," which is about a female robot, moves with "Mr. Ed"—the talking horse—into the time period being vacated by "CBS Reports." "CBS Reports" in turn shifts to Mondays starting tonight replacing "Slattery's People," which will move to Fridays Christmas Day replacing "The Reporter," which is canceled.

"For the People" is produced by Herb Brodkin, who also turns out "The Defenders," which of course is about defense attorneys. So the new series about prosecutors may have some slight significance if you like to read things into other things like that.

In any case, "For the People" would seem to face the problem that prosecutors are about as exciting as weekly heroes as reporters or press agents. It is possible, however, that CBS-TV has finally succeeded in achieving a friendly lynch scene.

Brodkin, at any rate, is learning that drama is currently about as popular on video as Hollywood is in South Bend. His "Defenders" was shunted to a very late hour. His "For the People" has a most unenviable time slot. And last season, his top-nitch "Espionage" series was pitted against "The Beverly Hillbillies" and "Ben Casey." At least he is rich. It gives one a more objective outlook.

He also wrote the narration, and thanks to his unifying and witty contributions, and to the notable technical assembling of material and interviews from a number of countries by director Harry Lasky and producer Walter Schwimmer, the program was a thoroughly satisfying blend of enlightenment and enjoyment. One really notable moment was captured in clips of a speech by Bernard Shaw for Albert Einstein. By combining the past with the immediate present, the hour was the best kind of documentary—a live one—and even found time for a significant appreciation of serene beauty in its shots of Stockholm.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: The Baltimore Colts-Cleveland Browns National Football League championship game will be broadcast Dec. 27 by CBS-TV . . . Clark Gable, Marilyn Monroe and Montgomery Clift appear in Arthur Miller's modern western drama, "The Misfits," on ABC-TV's Sunday night movie Jan. 3.

Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, who gave the famous "nuts" reply to a German surrender ultimatum in World War II, visits NBC-TV's "Today" program tomorrow . . . Also on "Today's" tomorrow, a Better Business Bureau executive tells how to avoid being cheated during the Christmas buying season.

Redwood Students Organize 'Tory' Political Party

A group of Redwood High School students have formed a organization to be known as the Redwood Tory Party.

"Our name is not to be confused with the 'tory' of the American Revolution," explained Vincent Lee, party organizer, who is a junior. "We have named it after the old Tory Party of England, now known as the Conservatives."

The party will not concern itself with national politics, but instead will strive toward increasing student interest at Redwood and promoting student-faculty relationships.

The first of the Navy's K-class Goodyear airships — the famous "blimps" of World War II—was launched Dec. 8, 1938.

Parents From Redwood Group

To encourage scholastic excellence at Redwood High School, the Sequoians, a new parents' organization, has been formed to give recognition to conscientious students, and help them in any way possible.

The Sequoians will work with Redwood's academic groups, particularly with the school's Honor Society and California Scholarship Federation. The annual scholarship awards banquet, formerly sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Assn., will now be under the auspices of the new group.

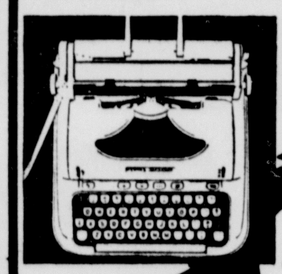

The first meeting will be March 9 in Redwood's Little Theater. Parents of students belonging to CSF or Honor Society are specifically invited, but anyone interested is welcome.
